

Gyaru Swap

A Body swap Gone Wrong!

1 Day Later...

DAMN IT!

DAMN IT!

DAMN IT!

Why won't
this stuff
come off!?

Creak

Plop!

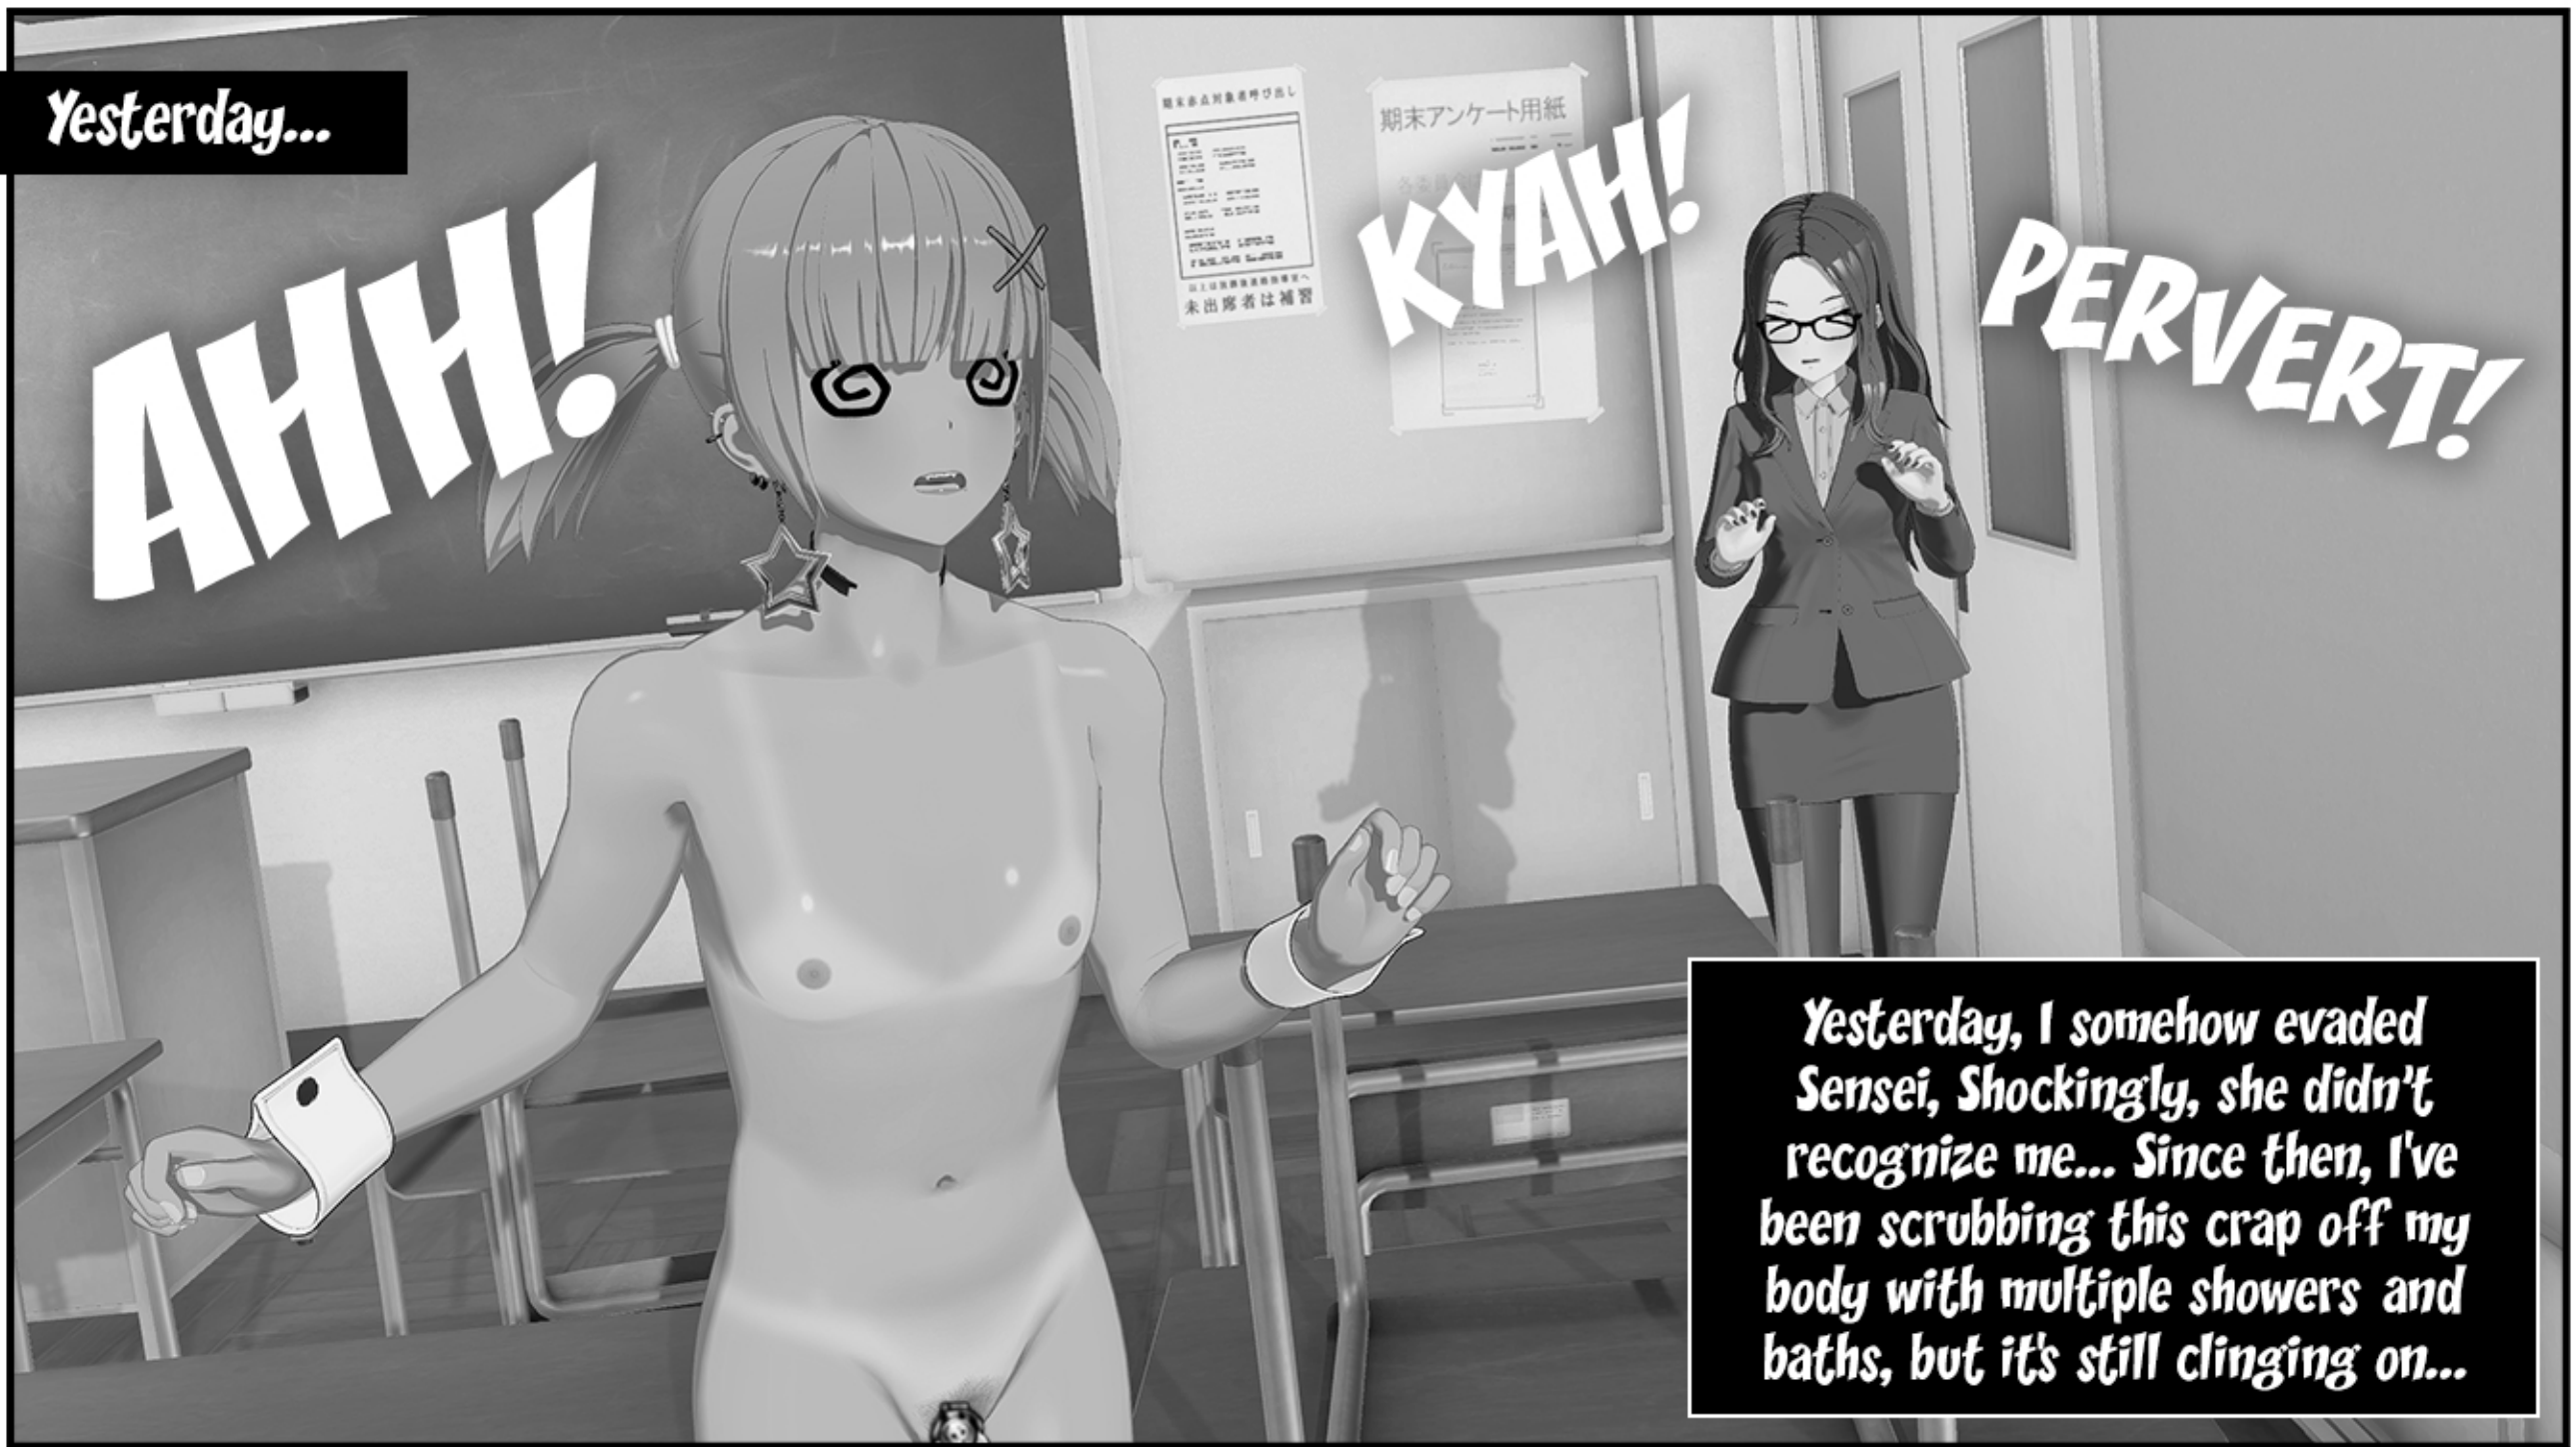

Stay calm...
Think logically.
Whatever she did
to me when we swapped can't be permanent...

Just like
how my speech
returned to normal...

But I can't wait forever...

Yesterday...

Yesterday, I somehow evaded Sensei, Shockingly, she didn't recognize me... Since then, I've been scrubbing this crap off my body with multiple showers and baths, but it's still clinging on...

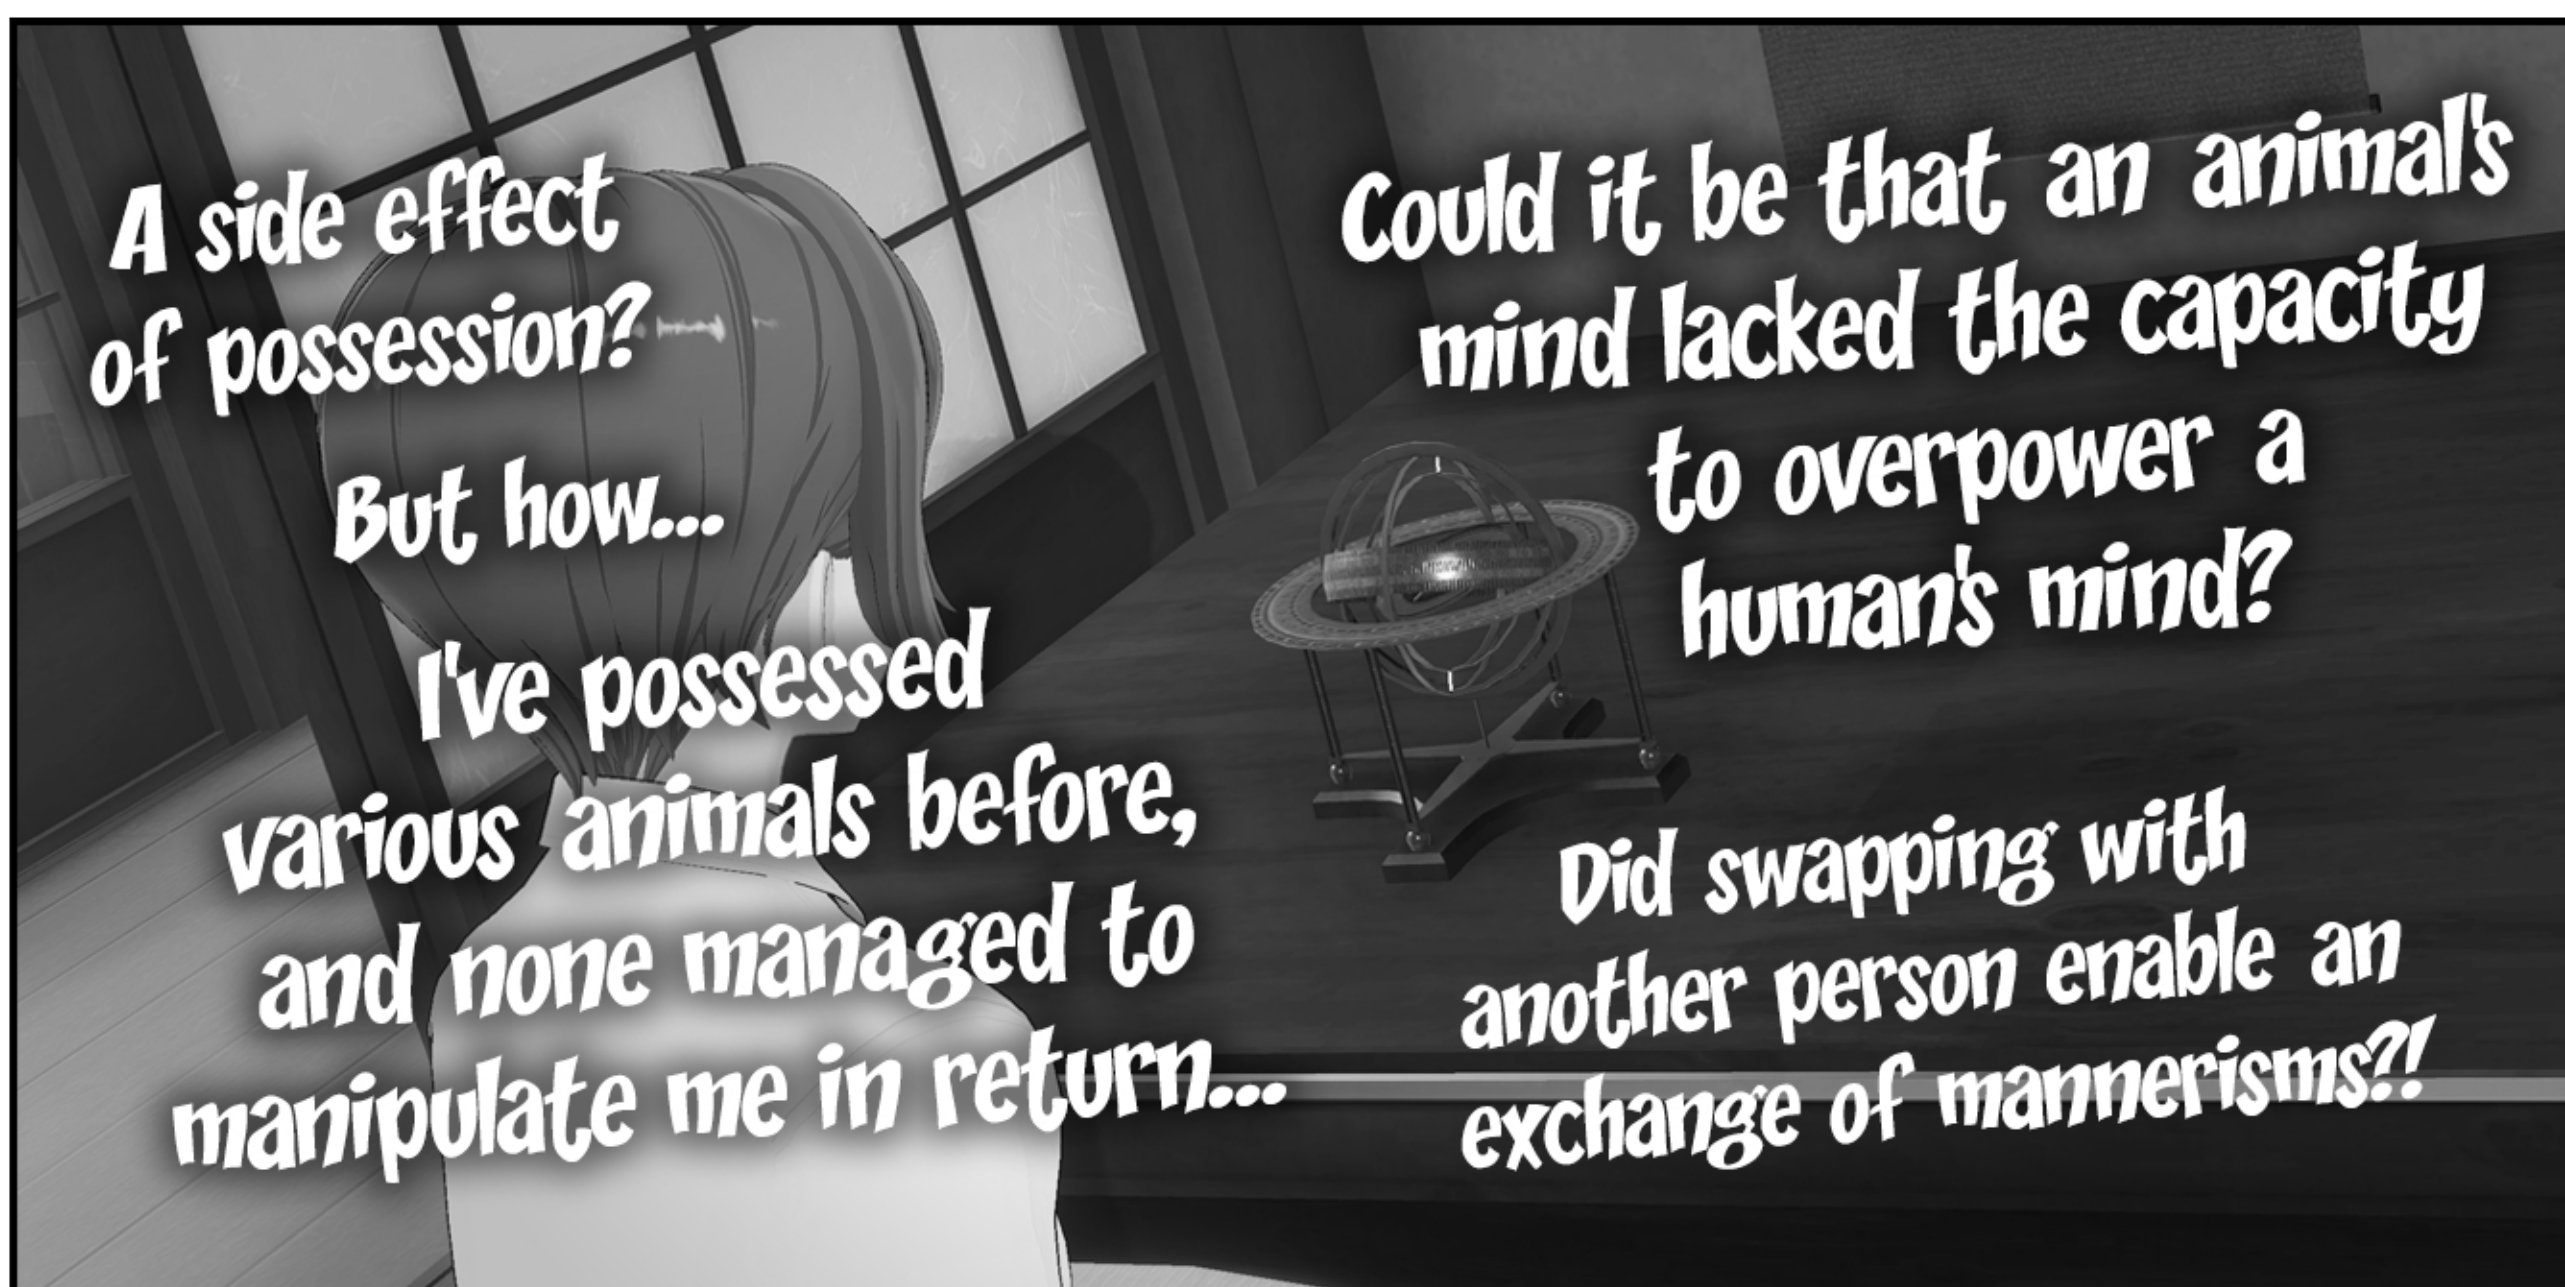

Calm down...

Crap... When I get worked up, that weird gyaru speech starts slipping out...

...But how? How did she make me speak like that? Unless..!

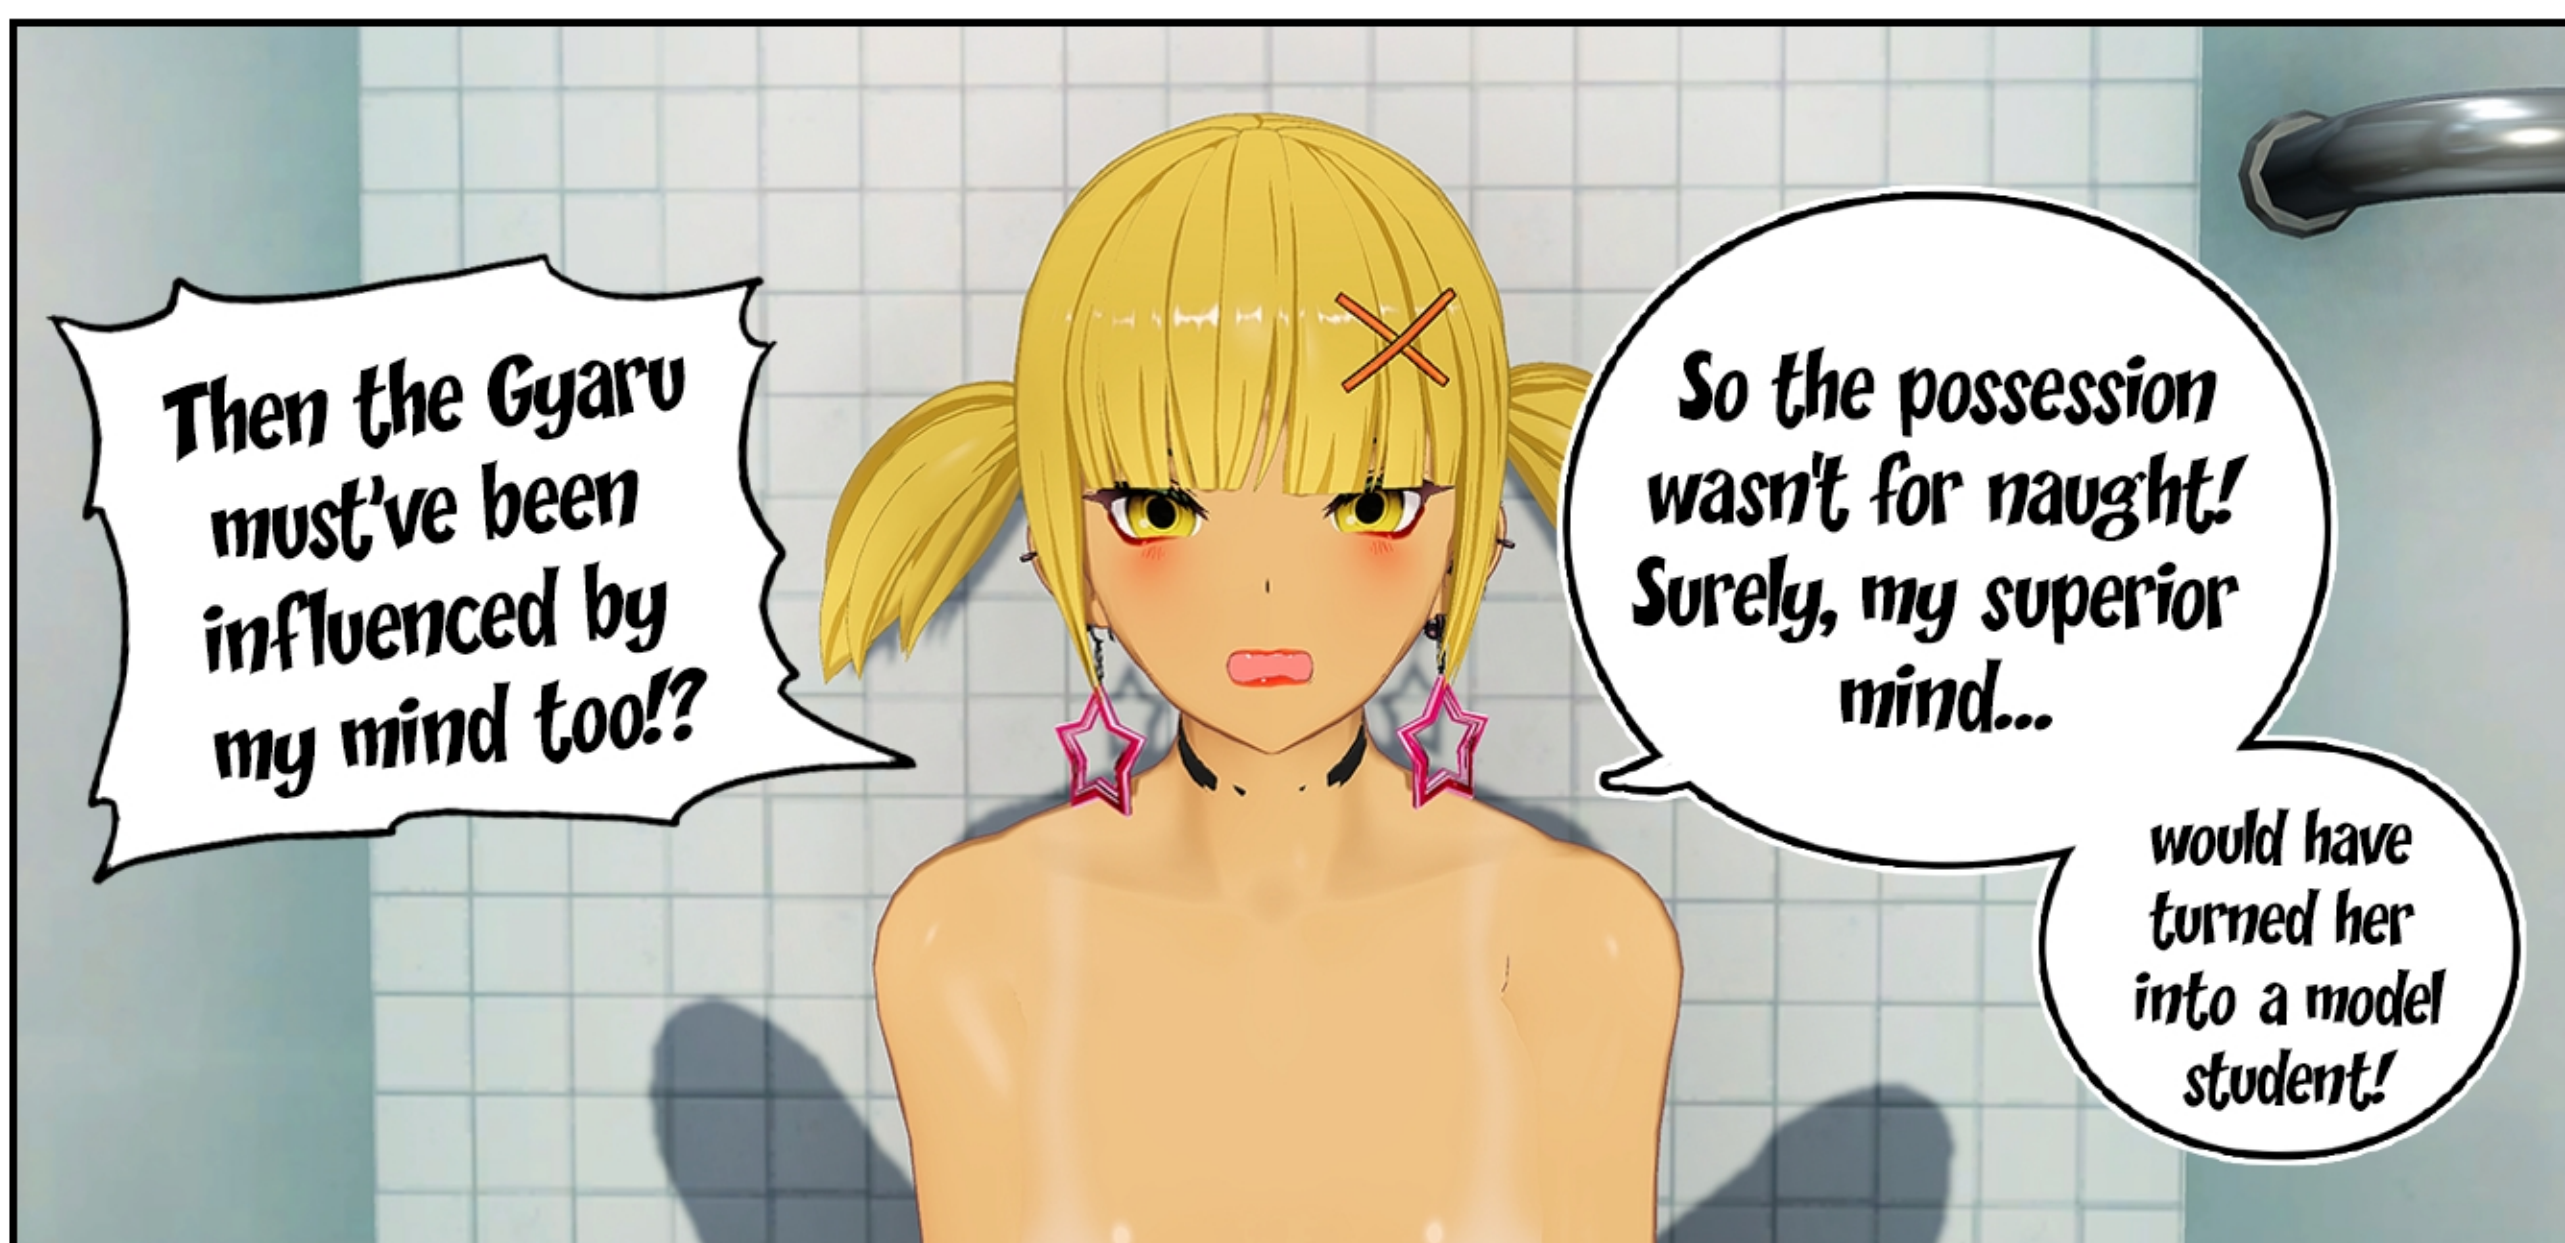

A side effect of possession?

But how...

I've possessed various animals before, and none managed to manipulate me in return...

Could it be that an animal's mind lacked the capacity to overpower a human's mind?

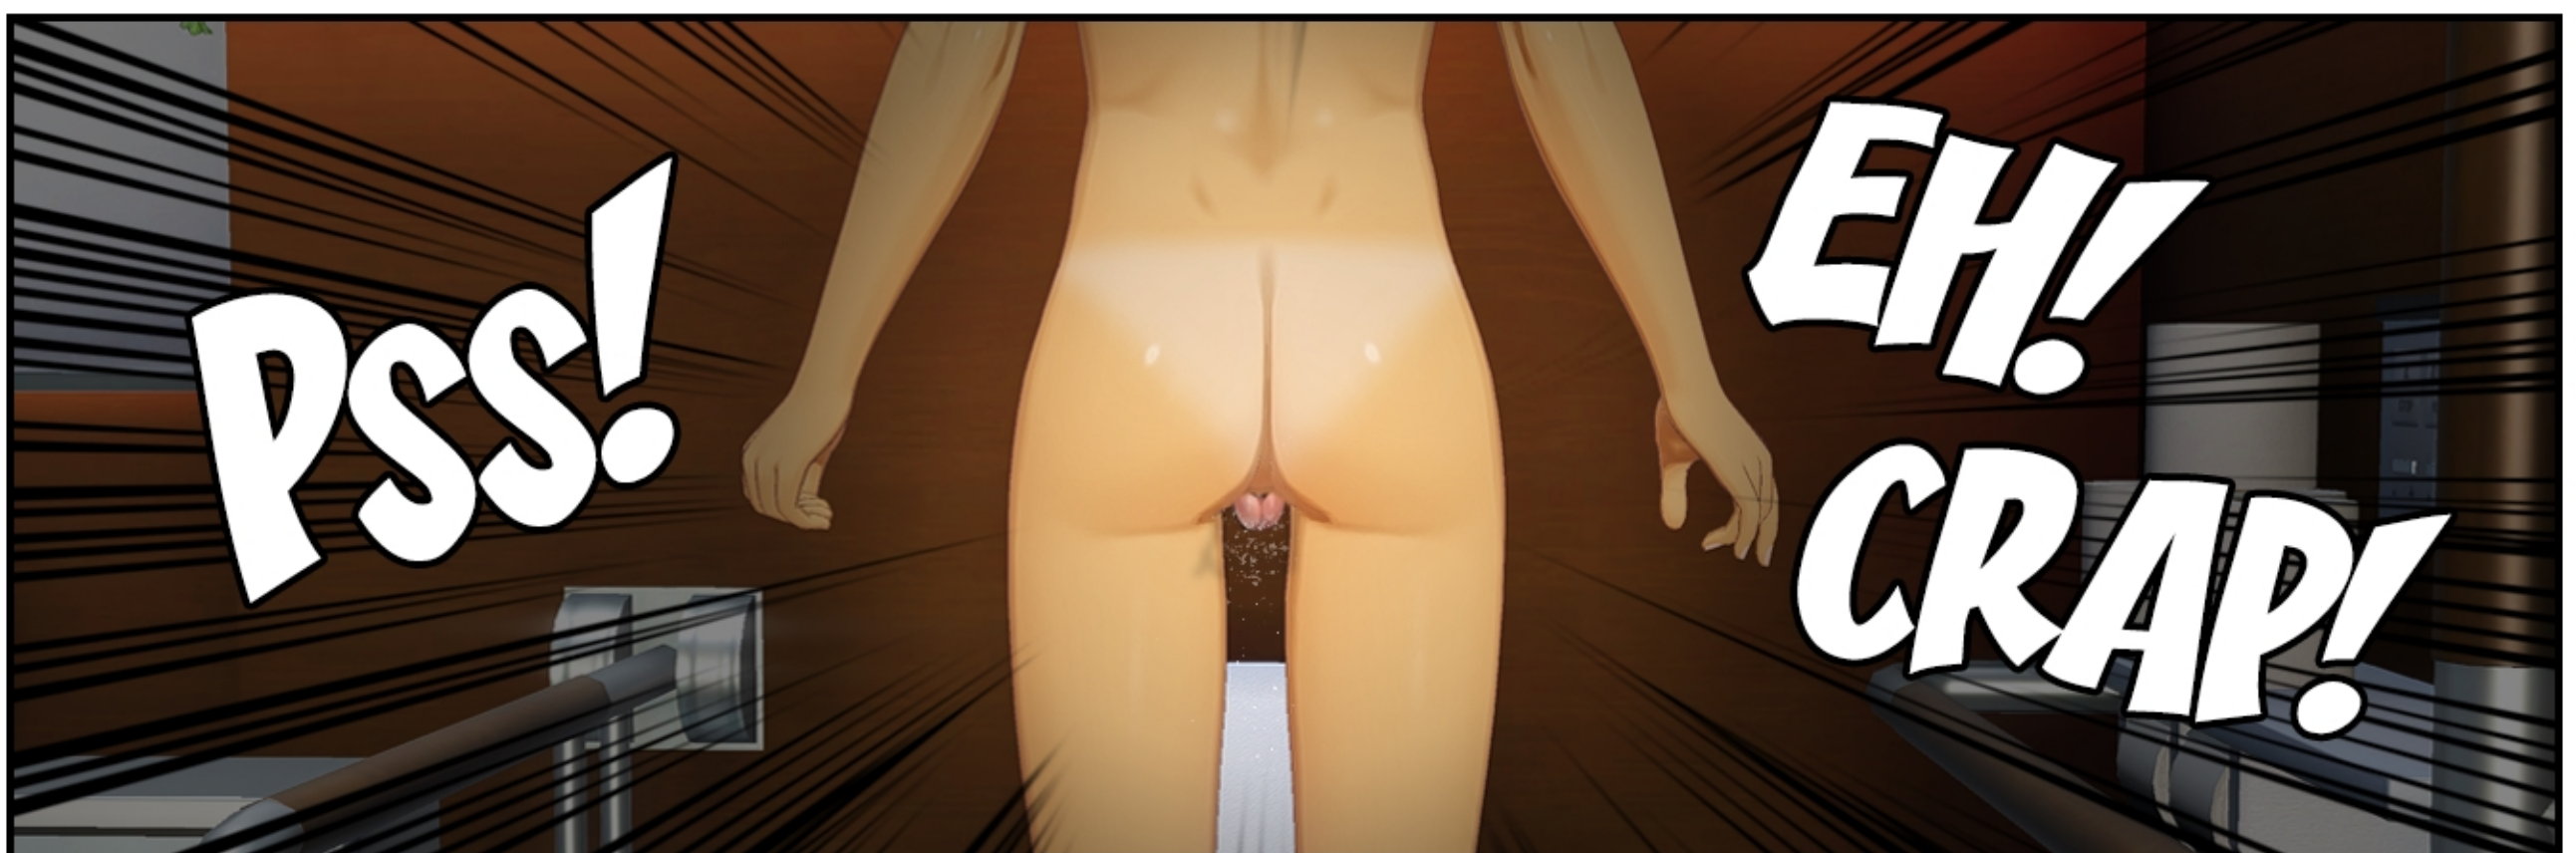

Did swapping with another person enable an exchange of mannerisms?!

Then the Gyaru must've been influenced by my mind too!?

So the possession wasn't for naught! Surely, my superior mind...

would have turned her into a model student!

A few moments later...

I tried
to ignore
it, but...
It's locked
away...

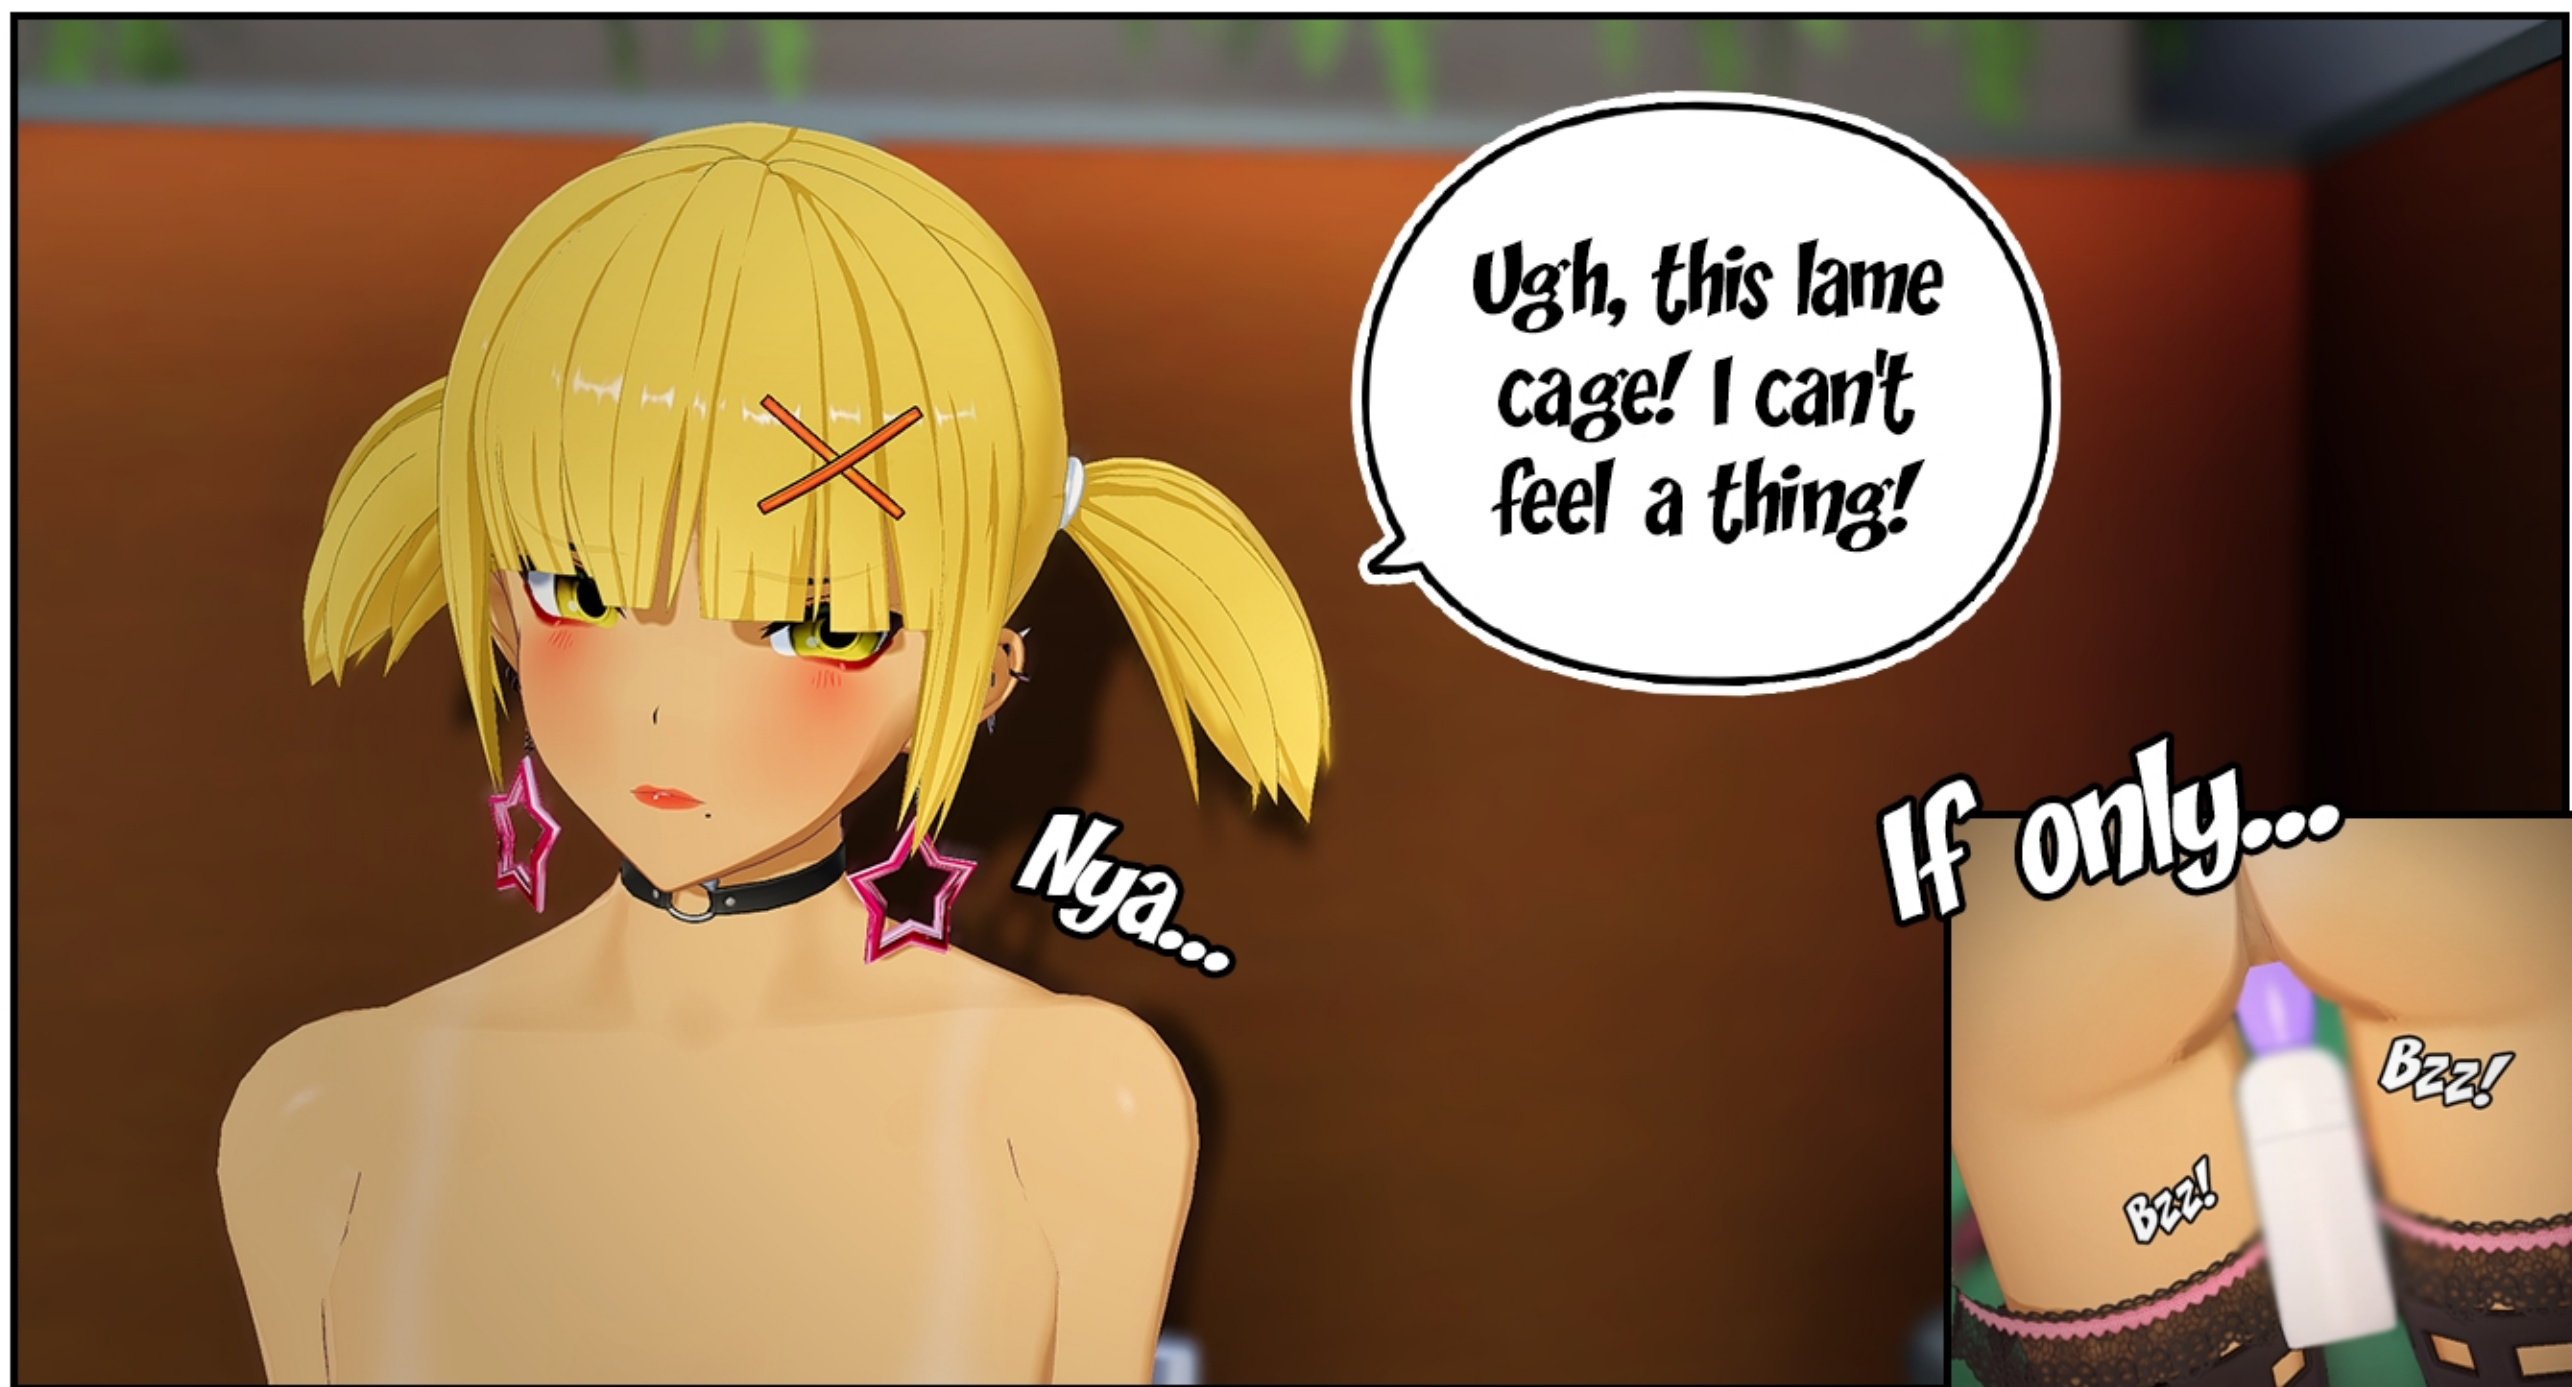

I guess using the
toilet standing up with
this thing on is out of the question...

I kind of feel
like a girl...
sitting on the
toilet like this...

I guess I was one... when I was getting...

Rub...
Rub...
Rub...

Hehehe...
You noticed, huh?
Well, you see... Long story short, I asked a guy to call me, but he's ghosting me...

...Well, I never gave them... I, like, thought he'd already have
them or at least
approach me, ya
know?

Oh? Maybe you,
like, gave him
the wrong digits?

Girl, seriously?
Guys can be clueless
sometimes!

Just grab him
the next time
ya see him!

I don't know
his number... So
when I next see him
at class, it's go time!

That's a good idea! I'll totally do that next time!

Right? Gotta take matters into your own
hands sometimes!
You got this, girl!

One week later...

↳ Like this is the only way!

MOTHER FUDGER!

It's been one week since the Gyaru and I swapped... And she still hasn't reached out to me... which leaves me no choice... Time's running out, and I have to take action.

Picture the Gyaru... She's like, totally decked out...

Bzz!

Bzz!

My parents will be back next month... I have a physical in 3 days... I-I need to find her and bring her here... I've also left a note for her, asking her not to mess with my body until I get home!
