Kelly's words were desperate, she was barely holding on in her exhaustion.

"Make me... Bigger..."

She continued to murmur. Wayne's throbbing cock was still deep inside of her overfilled pussy.

"She can't... Mean that..." Wayne thought to himself as he felt a quick build up from the effects from the changes he was going through. His balls were feeling tight and heavy as they were growing larger by the second now.

"I'm going to have to... Do something... I..." His mind faded as his instincts took over, he started to thrust into her once again.

His tiny body was being thrust against her giant stomach and he felt her gigantic legs around his body, almost looming bigger, he wasn't so sure if it was due to her growing again or him shrinking, not that he could think too much about it.

They kept fucking and he kept filling her full of cum, every few thrusts now he was spurting cum into her womb and her stomach only got bigger as a result, same for his balls. Wayne wasn't sure how long he was fucking for but by the time exhaustion finally took hold he was staring up at a monolithic belly, it was multiple times bigger than his entire body. The gigantic stomach pressed against the tall ceiling and if he wasn't hearing his heart thumping loudly in his ears he would've heard the creaking of the plasterboard above.

Crawling under her raised leg he walked across the bed, realising that he had indeed shrunk, not a huge amount but it was certainly noticeable at this point, especially when compared to his dick, it was now bigger than his body when he was erect. Even limp it was 75% of his body in length, he had to drag it across the bed to get around the gigantic orb that was Kelly's belly. They both had no idea what this would do to her body, there was so much inside of her and although Wayne felt so spent he could enter an eternal slumber he knew that tightness was already starting to return to his balls, balls that were obstructing his ability to walk because of how big and heavy they were becoming.

Standing at just about 15 inches tall, Wayne stood beside his over 15 foot lover, her belly easily bigger in circumference than 15 foot, he climbed up to her face which was covered in sweat and burning red from the heat of the orgasms that she had gone through.

"Kelly..." He tried to rouse her from her barely conscious state.

“Ugh...” She grunted in response.

“I need help...” Wayne pleaded. “You’re... You’re going to grow bigger... I don’t think it’s safe for me here...”

Kelly’s giant hand reached over and grabbed Wayne’s body and put him between her boobs. The warmth was incredible, and Wayne could feel how tightly packed her stomach was from here, reaching down with his feet he could feel the giant cum filled dome.

“What if your boobs grow... And you crush me?”

Wayne’s question was valid, and Kelly was far too gone to question. She just reached up and rubbed the vast expanse of her stomach, the tight skin looked like it could even give way with how full she was.

“If I grew a few feet from last time... I am much bigger now...” She accentuated her point with a firm slap to her stomach. “I’m going to get a lot bigger... The safest place you can be is protected between my tits...”

Her words were comforting to the tiny man, but he would be lying if he said he wasn’t entirely free from the thought of being squished.

They both laid there, still recovering from their sexual escapades. It didn’t take long before they noticed her stomach starting to shrink.

Slowly, but surely.

The ceiling was no longer being taxed by her stomach, and it was steadily getting smaller, there was a bit of lag between every inch she lost in her belly and how that translated to her height. The ceiling might’ve been freed from the pressure, but the walls were now feeling her legs grow and push against them.

Kelly’s legs were cramping because she was trying to contort and pull them inwards, in a desperate hope to preserve the house. It was for nothing however, she would continue to grow. With a powerful stretch her legs bust through the wall into the rest of the house.

Wayne gasped as he heard the wall give way.

“Kel...” He looked up to the wincing face of his girlfriend.

She had come round enough; her belly had shrunk enough too so that she could now look to turn over. Clutching Wayne close to her chest, she turned over, her stomach pressed against the mattress and her legs were snaking into the rest of the house.

With a wicked smile she looked at him between her tits. “Ready?”

“For what?” Wayne questioned.

He was not given an answer but she decided to lift herself up, her back crashing through the ceiling. The roof was barely anything for the strength of her body now at this size, she went to stand up and felt her legs give way as her feet came crashing through the first floor and onto the ground floor. The house was pretty much destroyed in a single movement but as her feet continued to become larger more of the room she had just flattened became irreparably destroyed.

Wayne didn't know how high he was now, thanks to his shrinking size, and the massive growth his girlfriend had undergone he couldn't guess. Her stomach was still large, like a pregnant woman's so there was still plenty of growth to be had.

She was clutching Wayne tightly into her cleavage as she continued to grow, feeling his growth deep between the valley of her tits.

"Looks like I'm not the only one growing..." She chuckled; her voice boomed compared to the shrinking Wayne.

His body had now become predominantly dick, his large appendage was being squished against his body, and he felt the searing hot rod run up his chest and be a few inches above his head. To him it was almost as if he was holding a fireman's pole, but thicker. His balls were also becoming larger by the second, slowly edging closer to the size of a small beanbag for his tiny body. The light around was being snuffed out by her growing body, specifically her tits that based on the size of her whole body had sized up to finally consume his entire tiny body.

In complete darkness, Wayne could only wait.

Kelly on the other hand, was soaring larger by the second, her abs were almost back thanks to the amount of cum her body had metabolised. Looking down she had to guess she was almost 50 feet tall. There were sirens in the distance rapidly racing towards her location.

It didn't bother her one bit, thankfully her feet were only big enough to destroy their joint house given to them by the lab. Standing huge, naked and her hulking powerful form had returned, she stood proud above everyone below her. Police had made some sort of perimeter around her, and she looked down on the tiny people and smiled.

Spreading her boobs apart she lifted Wayne out, the tiny man dangled off his cock and balls, he was tiny, especially compared to her, there was one thing about Wayne that wasn't, however.

His cock.

The surging and pulsating rod was big even in her hands, Kelly looked at it in awe.

"Wow... Now you really have grown... Look at you..." She lifted the dick above her head and looked at the tiny man attached to the end of it, bringing him close to her eyes.

"You okay honey?"

Wayne nodded; her loud booming voice was so much that he thought his chest might cave in. Reality was that he could most certainly feel, he was overwhelmed with feeling, it was as if there was too much stimulation for his body to handle. The way her hand gripped around his prick was almost enough to make him explode alone.

Kelly turned Wayne down to look at the masses below.

“Looks like we’ve got an audience honey.” She giggled.
