

Chapter 1: Fun Begins

Finally, the day had arrived when we would finally be leaving this shit world.

Cortana was back in my Demiplane and would be waiting until the new door opened to the New World. Since I wasn't sure what was going to happen to my body when I was transported, she would be keeping watch over my body to see what happened.

Luckily, we didn't have to be in World 2138 to access Yggdrasil with our home having access to the local internet.

When only one hour remained before the servers shutdown, I bid goodbye to Cortana with a kiss before logging in.

Upon my arrival in the game, I made sure to equip the Guild Weapon and ordered all the Pleiades along with Sebas to follow behind me to the throne room. Since we took the scenic route, it took us 20 minutes to arrive where I found Albedo waiting next to the Throne of Kings.

Sitting down I spent the remaining time going over anything I might have missed. I finally came to a stop when only 30 seconds remained and tried to relax as the countdown counted down to zero. At the 5 seconds mark I got a little nervous so I closed my eyes and waited for the transfer.

=====

"So, it finally happened." I spoke softly, my voice reverberating around the large room.

I could immediately feel the change when it happened.

It was a little jarring going from having a peak human body to a literal skeleton. Opening my eyes only made it worse as I brought up my now skeletal hand close to my face to take a closer look.

Strangely it didn't feel uncomfortable just different but I think this will be my first and last time in this form as no matter how convenient it may be at times, it lacked something I would not go without. My dick.

Just thinking about going without sex now that I was getting it every day was almost painful. However, it seems like the original Momonga I must have spent too much time in my thoughts as I heard a beautiful voice speak to the side of me.

"-Sama. What's wrong, Momonga-sama?"

Turning my head towards the voice I saw Albedo only fully alive now instead of just computer code. It was it the way she looked, talked, smelled, and it was especially noticeable in her yellow eyes now looking at me in concern.

I was thankful for my new form not having any skin as I unconsciously smirked even if it was not visible on my face at having such a look directed at me.

'Get fucked, Momonga. Albedo now belongs to me.' I thought feeling the urge to burst out laughing maniacally only just managing to rein myself in due to Stress Defense and my emotional control skill.

"I'm fine Albedo, but if my hunch is correct the tomb may no longer be in the marshes of Helheim. In fact, I doubt we are even in Helheim anymore." I finally responded getting a shocked look from her.

Looking down I directed my gaze at Sebas still kneeling with the Pleiades by the side.

"Sebas! Step out of the tomb and confirm the surroundings around Nazarick." I ordered in a firm voice.

"Understood, Lord Momonga." He responded immediately and walked out without another word.

The others looked at me and waited for their own instructions with an almost zealous look.

"Pleiades. I have a task for you but please wait outside for a moment as I need to confirm something with Albedo."

"As you wish, Lord Momonga." Yuri Alpha responded for everyone before they all headed outside after giving me a brief bow.

"So, Lord Momonga. What shall I do?" Albedo asked with a smile on her face.

"Come closer Albedo. I need to confirm something."

Alright, I admit it. There was nothing I wanted to confirm. I just wanted to touch her breasts. If the original Momonga did it, I as hell was not going to pass up the opportunity.

With a delighted look on her face Albedo got as close to me as she could without straddling me and looked at me with an eager look.

Then after mentally turning off Negative Energy Touch I confidently went straight for her left breast and gave it a good squeeze. Albedo's face immediately turned flush as a huge smile grew on her face as she moaned softly.

"Does this bother you, Albedo?" I asked already knowing the answer, my hand never leaving her breast.

"Aaah~ Of course not, my Lord! After all this body belongs to you mmnya." Albedo responded immediately by shaking her head, her moans only getting louder.

"Good, now Albedo step back a bit. Now that I'm no longer restricted by the rules of Yggdrasil, I want to give you something." I said sadly letting go of her breast for now.

"A gift? For me? There is no need Momonga-sama. Being in your presence is more than enough for me." Albedo said looking disappointed at me no longer molesting her before getting happy again at my next words but nonetheless following my words and taking a few steps back.

"Nonsense, now stand still and relax." I dismissed her words easily and willed my Shroud to appear before having it surround the curious Albedo.

With how devoted she already was to me it only took a moment before I felt a connection form and I willed my Shroud away revealing the form of Albedo again inspecting her Dream Shroud in fascination.

"My Lord..." Albedo muttered while looking down at the Shroud. "Is this your power?" she asked looking up at me and if possible, her look had gotten more fanatic.

"That's correct. I have personally gifted you with a small portion of my power." I said nonchalantly as if it was no big deal only getting her expression to turn more extreme.

I was then treated to Albedo singing my praises for the next few minutes before I finally got tired of it and raised my hand making her finally shut up.

'All this posturing and fanatic worship is going to get annoying rather fast.' I thought with a mental roll of my eyes.

"Albedo, I will now return to my original form, the one I had before Yggdrasil." I suddenly said confusing Albedo at my words but nodding regardless.

Knowing that I would eventually turn into an Overlord, I had gone ahead and bought Anthropize for myself for this exact moment.

A moment later I felt myself return to my original self, a seventeen-year-old teen with white hair and blue eyes, hearing a gasp as I did so. I was still wearing the same clothes, just without the weird pauldrons and refitted to fit my new form.

"Aaah, it feels good being back in this form again." I muttered looking down at my now regular looking hand instead of that of a skeleton also absently noting that my voice no longer sounded as deep.

"Momonga-sama?" Albedo suddenly muttered in confusion looking at my new form curiously.

"Hoh, do you have a problem with my original looks Albedo?" I asked letting my aura leak out causing the Succubus to pale and immediately prostrating herself in one knee with her head bowed low.

"Forgive me, my Lord! I meant no offense." Albedo hurried to explain herself.

"Good, now come here. Let's finish what we started earlier." I commanded with a slight frown on my face.

Heeding my words, Albedo immediately got on her feet again and approached me with an excited blush growing on her face.

"You're going to take me for the first time here and now, right?" Albedo asked already panting in excitement. "What should I do about my clothes? Should I remove them myself? Or would you like to remove them, Momonga-sama?"

"Keep them on. We're a bit short on time so we'll have to be quick." I ordered with a slight smirk on my face already feeling hard at what was about to happen next. "And call me Lucan from now on. My true name is Lucan."

"As you command, Lucan-sama~" Albedo agreed moaning out my name.

"Now lean your hands against the throne and stick out your ass towards me Albedo." I ordered getting up on my feet and watching in perverse glee as Albedo followed my orders.

"I'm ready Lucan-sama~ Please use me as you wish~" Albedo said in excitement shaking her perfect ass at me as she looked at me over her shoulder.

"Hmhmh I intend to." I said with a smirk walking up behind her and slapping her right ass cheek getting a moan from the Succubus.

(Lime)

Not bothering with any preparations or foreplay I lifted up her white dress over her hips not surprised when I found she wasn't wearing anything underneath it.

'I'm glad I bound her before I did this. While I don't mind a bit of hair down there, anything beyond that is just too much for my tastes.' I thought in relief glad that the Body Tune-Up perk took care of such things.

"Ready Albedo?" I asked pulling down my robes a bit and letting my dick spring out before grabbing ahold of Albedo's wide hips.

"Always-Aaaaah~"

Not letting her finish, I sheathed myself completely in her tiny pussy taking her virginity and making her cum immediately.

'Fuck! This pussy is insane.' I thought with a slight grimace just managing not to bust my load at the feel of her pussy. 'I guess she's a Succubus for a reason.'

Once I was sufficiently calmed, I pulled out my dick until only the tip remained before forcefully slamming myself back inside drawing a pleased moan from the panting Albedo who had just came down from her high.

"Aaaaah~ Lucan-sama~ Please grant me your cumm~" Albedo let out with her tongue lewdly sticking out from her mouth and looking back at me with literal hearts in her eyes.

Not bothering with a response, I let myself go releasing all the pent-up lust I had for the woman hammering away at her at a rapid pace.

'Take this you bitch. Take responsibility for all the times I fantasized about this lewd body of yours.' I thought with a snarl letting go of her hips and grabbing her horns finding they provided an excellent grip.

"Aaah~ Aaah~ Lucan-sama, Lucan-sama~ I'm s-so happy~ Please use my b-body more."

"Tell me, Albedo! Whom does this body belong to!?" I asked letting go of one of her horns and grabbing ahold of her breast and aggressively molesting it.

"I-it belongs to you, Lucan-sama~ All my holes, breasts and every inch of my body belong only to youuu! Eeeeeek!" Albedo screamed back at me sounding deliriously happy not caring if the Pleiades outside could hear us before I felt her cum again.

'Damn, she cums way too easy. At this rate, I won't be able to last much longer.' I thought closing one of my eyes at the insane pressure my dick was feeling right now but never stopping my thrusts.

(End of Lemon)

(30 Minutes Later)

Back to my Overlord form again for now, I let out a small sigh of content at claiming my first conquest watching as Albedo carefully cleaned herself of my cum by scooping it all up and swallowing it as if tempting me for more.

"Don't tempt me Albedo. Unfortunately, we must stop here for now as we are currently dealing with a big issue." A depressed look took over Albedo's face at my words before she wiped it away and a serious look replaced it.

"Of course, Lucan-sama. What are your orders?"

"I want to discuss something with all the guardians and high-level beings in the tomb in about an hour after Sebas returns with his findings." I got comfortable in my seat again and told Albedo her orders.

"I need you to head to the 8th floor and summon Victim, your sisters Nigredo and Rubedo and finally Aureole Omega here. Let them know it is a request from me personally. I would send one of the Pleiades but as the Guardian Overseer I leave this to you."

Albedo took on a serious face once again before agreeing to my request. "At once."

Seeing her about to leave however I remembered something. "Please wait for a moment." I summoned a ring of Ainz Ooal Gown from my inventory and handed it to her. "Here, this should make getting around the place a lot faster."

"A r-ring? 'cough' Thank you Lucan-sama!" Albedo's face changed to pure bliss again for a moment before composing herself and agreeing.

"It was nothing, just continue with your great work. Now please send the Pleiades back in before you depart."

With a calm smile Albedo nodded to my words before she left the room and moments later the Pleiades walked back in.

“What are your orders, Momonga-sama?” Yuri asked for the group again as they all took a knee before me.

Looking down at them I could see a small blush present on every girl except for Entoma for obvious reasons letting me know that they had definitely heard us.

“I have something I want to discuss with the denizens of Nazarick. Except for the guardians of the fourth and eighth floor, gather everyone here in an hour from now.” I thought about also giving them rings but held off for now.

“Understood.” Yuri responded before they all stood up and left in a single file.

Left alone in the throne room I relaxed and waited for the others to arrive.

Approximately 40 minutes later the door opened before a girl in her teens entered dressed in a fancy black evening dress. Her silver hair swayed gently as she walked with her red slitted eyes glowing ominously in the dim lighting of the room. When she came upon the steps to the throne, she gave me a cute curtsy in greeting.

“Ah, my lord! The one beloved man I cannot rule above!” Suddenly her expression grew flushed before she jumped into my arms and hugged me around the neck forcing me to hold her waist.

“Haha, it is good to see you as well Shalltear. How are you?” I laughed bringing her fully into my lap and grabbing a handful of her pert behind getting a pleased moan from her.

“I’m infinitely better now that I’m in your magnificent presence fufufu. Will you be taking my first time here my lord? Aah~ I thought this day would never come.” Shalltear laughed delightedly as she bit her lip and pushed her rear more into my hand.

“Not yet I’m afraid.” Shalltear’s expression immediately dimmed at my response. “I have something important to announce to everyone.”

“Meet me in my bed chambers when this is complete, understand?” I commanded more than asked getting the vampire to flush happily and nod her head. “You will be the second woman I take after Albedo.”

“With pleasure my Lord~” Shalltear immediately agreed before a slight scowl grew on her face. “Tsk, so that gorilla got to go first huh?”

“Don’t take it personally. As a Succubus, I need to make sure she is sated or it might cause problems in the future now that we are no longer in Yggdrasil.” I explained my reasoning to Shalltear making her look at me curiously.

“No longer in Yggdrasil? It that the reason you are summoning all the guardians my lord?”

“Ah, I got a little ahead of myself there. Yes indeed. That is one of the reasons why I summoned everyone here, but if you don’t mind waiting for everyone else to arrive as I don’t want to explain myself more than once.” I ended my explanation my squeezing Shalltear’s behind a little roughly making her release an erotic moan.

“Mnnya Momonga-sama~ Of course I don’t mind waiting my lord.”

Even though I had no skin at the moment and therefore shouldn’t have a sense of touch I felt my lap get a little warm. Looking down at Shalltear I noticed an expression of bliss in her face and realized she had just cummed from the bit of groping I had done.

I let the horny vampire down before she got any more excited and attacked me getting a cute pout from her.

“Now now there will be time for that later, besides the others could arrive at any moment.”

Almost as if my words had summoned them the door opened again and the remaining people, I had summoned entered the throne room.

“Shalltear! Are you bothering Lord Momonga?” A female boisterous voice shouted at the vampire.

“O-Onee-san please calm down.” A second female voice joined the first one this one sounding much softer and more feminine than the other.

“Oh, shorty. Your finally here?” Shalltear responded in a teasing voice.

Turning towards the two that spoke I spotted Aura and Mare walking ahead of the others. The two dark elf sisters looking much older than their canon counterparts no longer looking like children. Not to mention Mare was no longer a boy.

“Tsk, you’re the shorty here fake boobs.” Aura responded with a teasing smile in return while looking down at her.

“W-why you-” Whatever Shalltear was about to say next as she was interrupted by a raspy voice speaking from the back.

“What a ruckus. You two are playing around too much in front of our master.” Turning toward the new voice it turned out to be Cocytus.

“Everyone, I apologize for making you all wait.” A refined voice spoke up next showing Demiurge walking beside Albedo and her sisters.

“Now everyone. To our supreme leader, the ritual of fidelity.” Albedo finally spoke with a hint of authority in her voice.

“The guardian of the first, second, and third floor, Shalltear Bloodfallen. I bow before the supreme one.”

“The guardian of the fifth floor, Cocytus. I bow before the supreme one.”

“Area guardian of the fifth floor, Nigredo. I bow before the supreme one.”

“The guardian of the sixth floor, Aura Bella Fiora.” “Also the guardian of the sixth floor, Mare Bello Fiore.”

“We bow before the supreme one.”

“The guardian of the seventh floor, Demiurge. I bow before the supreme one.”

“The guardian of the eighth floor, Victim. I bow before the supreme one.”

“The guardian of the Cherry Blossom Sanctuary, Aureole Omega. I bow before the supreme one.”

“Area guardian of the eighth floor, Rubedo. I bow before the supreme one.”

“Members of the Pleiades Six Stars, Yuri, Lupusregina, Narberal, Shizu, Solution, Entoma. We bow before the supreme one.” The Pleiades said in unison.

“The leader of the guardians, Albedo. I bow before the supreme one.”

“Other than the guardian of the fourth floor, Gargantua, all of the guardians have gathered to bow before you. Please bestow your orders upon us, Supreme One. We offer our complete loyalty to you.” Albedo finished speaking before they all turned to look at me expectingly.

'Hmhmhmhm yeah, this is going to be fun.' I couldn't help but let out a dark chuckle seeing all these powerful beings prostrating themselves before me.

As they should, I was the Player here and everyone else was just an NPC.
