

The Accident Pt II

The following was a commission submitted to me by a Super Fan on Patreon.

Kelly's belly continued to inflate and grow as Wayne came over and over. It was getting to the point that even she, despite her size and strength, was starting to struggle with the giant cum balloon that hung off her toned frame.

They were both starting to feel fatigue setting in, numerous orgasms would certainly do that to anyone, no matter what strange new physical powers they might have after the accident.

During their romp they had moved from the sofa to the bed, Kelly's belly becoming too much, she needed to lay down. Wayne joining his massively inflated girlfriend on her gigantic custom bed. He marvelled at the sheer size of her giant orb-like stomach. It rose high above them like a mountain, even more so for the smaller Wayne. If she were to turn over, he would likely meet his end.

Standing next to her body, he rubbed his dick against the swell of her belly, tracing his still throbbing head to her pussy that was oozing a small amount of cum onto the sheets.

"You've filled me up so much..." Kelly's words echoed in the room. "And still..." A loud thunk filled Wayne's ears after Kelly's powerful palm slapped the side of her massive stomach. "You want more..."

Wayne didn't answer, the levels of arousal he was feeling now were just too much, he knew he didn't have much left physically, but his balls were already filled back up. The heavy sack between his legs swung as they were clearly working overdrive to fulfil his growing girl's request to be pumped full.

He started to fuck her again, the slick noise of her lubricated vagina was turning him on more, even as the squelches of his thrusts pushed out some excess cum that hadn't been pumped entirely into her womb, he pounded her.

Kelly's screams filled the air, orgasms were coming so quickly now thanks to her overstimulated sex.

It didn't take long before Wayne unloaded a final torrent of cum deep into her, he could feel her stomach swell and bulge against his body. His dick still didn't go soft even after cumming, his body was the limiting factor, his arms and legs ached, he was struggling to catch his breath and his eyelids felt like they had anvils on them.

Physically spent, even if his cock didn't get the memo. He crawled up to the top of the bed, not a small trek for someone his size. He laid down next to Kelly.

She was in a very similar position, Wayne could see how tired she looked, her own stamina had increased thanks to the serum but even that had its limits. Kelly looked at her tiny boyfriend and smiled, finally satisfied and spent.

“That... that was fucking incredible... I love you...”

“I love you too...” Wayne added before he finally let his body give in.

They both fell asleep looking at one another. Wayne’s dick was still solid and leaking cum, his heavy balls were still producing cum and if he was awake, he would’ve felt the tightness return. Kelly looked down and saw her stomach, massively distended and spreading wide over her frame one last time before she fell asleep, a sense of awe as it was finally settling in that the orb attached to her, was her.

Their slumber was well earned and a much-needed reprieve from their horny affliction that was caused by the formula that had altered their bodies.

The scientists were happy that they had seen all the changes.

So were Kelly and Wayne.

Reality was, there were still more surprises yet to come.

The Serum had altered their DNA, it was now a part of their physiology, which meant it could adapt, evolve and change. A living body driving it forward meant it was capable of so much more outside of their bodies in some test tube.

The sleep they both entered was deep, their spent bodies ran very hot and with good reason. They were changing and having deep and vivid dreams.

Kelly came round and she was normal sized again, she looked around and things felt different, felt off. There was a haziness and a fog that felt just outside of her periphery. It took a few seconds of focus to understand where she was.

“A gym...” She murmured aloud.

A heavy slap met her back, and she turned around to see Wayne, except it wasn’t quite Wayne. It was definitely his face; she felt his aura, but his body was so different. He was jacked. His body was rippling with muscles, wearing just shorts he looked incredible. Kelly felt herself becoming turned on.

“Hey...” she cooed, feeling herself blush at the sight of his huge and ripped body.

His huge arms wrapped around her comparatively tiny body and she felt every muscle against her thin body and something else.

His thick and hard cock, pressing against her thigh.

Kelly quivered.

Wayne felt a strange sensation on his face, like wind blowing, but it wasn't quite wind. He looked to see a strangely familiar face; it was like Kelly's but there was something not quite right about it. He felt her blowing air on his face and he was starting to understand where he was.

For some reason he was in his parent's house, laying in his old bed. He hadn't been here for years. Confused, Wayne looked around, everything was in place like he was 18 again before he moved out. Everything felt blurry but somehow there were these intense sensations of touch and feeling. Looking down he looked the same as he did now, Kelly looked mostly the same, except she had a bit of a belly, that belly was pressed against his body, and it felt like she was right there despite the strangeness of the situation.

"I must be dreaming..."

"Hey..." she cooed.

Wayne turned to look at her.

"I can't believe we're doing this..." She moaned.

"Doing what?"

Kelly lowered her hand to her stomach that now looked a few inches bigger and rounder.

"Pregnant..." Her voice was teasing. "Will you still like me when I'm the size of a house?" She giggled.

"Pregnant..."

Kelly couldn't help but press her leg into his swelling rod and moan into his ear. The sensation felt a hundred times better than it usually did. She felt like a feral beast in heat.

"Fuck... Wayne..." She moaned in his face.

"Come on, let's do some sets..."

Kelly enjoyed the gym, but she rarely worked weights, or she certainly didn't push herself enough. Looking at Wayne's newly enhanced body then it seemed that he certainly did.

"Chest press first." His voice was almost devoid of emotion.

Laying on her back Kelly looked up at Wayne, her head between his powerful legs, there was no way that she wasn't going to see that python up close. He moved forward to help her get the bar over the lip so that she could start chest pressing.

In that moment his dick pressed against her cheek, and she could feel this buzz of electricity between them, and she felt so turned on in that second that she wanted nothing more than to slip off the bench and fuck him.

For some reason she wasn't able to do that, it almost felt like her body was on autopilot. She started pumping the iron and didn't question the weight, it felt really light, there was no pain in her arms but when she glanced over she saw the number of plates on the bar that she must be lifting significant weight.

Wayne's dick was starting to make a tent in his shorts and Kelly stared at it lustfully as it stretched in his pants.

Without saying a word, Wayne unsheathed his huge dick and rested it against her cheek. She didn't stop pumping, she just kept lifting. A strange sensation was running through Kelly, she could feel a flutter in her body, a heat rising within as Wayne's dick grew against her face.

"More... Please..."

The sensation of his growing arousal against her soft cheeks was too much for her, she needed to do something about it.

She couldn't resist, she guided it into her mouth, not even noticing that she was not needing to breathe, in and out Wayne started pumping, his cock growing in her mouth, somehow she was able to take it.

Her body was feeling stronger, her lower back was starting to slide off the end of the bench, not quite, her body was outgrowing the bench, the weight she was lifting was becoming easier but also it was still increasing, plates magically being added to the bar. Her hands were growing bigger on the bar, but all Kelly could focus on was sucking the gigantic member in her mouth.

The burning she was feeling was rising as she felt herself becoming so incredibly turned on. As the pumping of her arms increased, so did the speed of Wayne's hips. The monster cock was stretching her throat and suddenly a warm feeling was felt in her stomach.

Wayne was cumming inside of mouth, his dick had grown so far that she didn't even need to swallow his cum, it was being directly deposited into her stomach. The cum was pumping her full, Kelly's belly was starting to swell and grow from the cum. Seconds passed and Kelly could feel the weight on her belly, how it was pressing down on her body as it still continued to grow. Without even moving her head, she could somehow see, in some sort of foggy way, like her vision was moving between her point of view and a camera looking at her belly stretching bigger and ballooning larger by the second. Her skin was yielding to the swelling, her belly was outpacing the other growth she was undergoing, still Wayne continued to pump cum into her.

Not noticing another man enter, there was a sudden feeling below, she knew that feeling, well. Her lips were spread, and her womb was suddenly being pumped too full of cum. Her belly growth doubled, and her size continued to swell.

Kelly could just about see over her swelling belly the face of Wayne.

“Two Wayne’s?”

There was no time to question it, she just enjoyed the intense feeling of her body stretching and swelling each second. Her inner voice begging for more, to continue to grow and expand. Her body was huge, not just her belly, the big muscly Wayne’s were becoming a lot smaller in comparison to her massive growing frame.

There was a pulling at her skin, some hands, an extra few sets, she saw more Wayne’s gather around her massive swelling midsection and start to rub their hands and cocks against it, like they were worshipping her growing size. Kelly felt the rising pleasure coming to a massive crescendo.

“Holy fuck!”

Wayne was shocked already, the strange scene but reaching out he felt the firmness of Kelly’s middle. He couldn’t believe it but not just the feeling but also what he felt after touching it.

Turned on.

“Oh~” Kelly cooed. “Want to knock me up again? You just want to fill me with more cum don’t you...”

Wayne looked at his now visibly bigger girlfriend, not deterred by her sudden change, he nodded.

Kelly moaned and reached her hand down to his pants, Wayne moaned as Kelly started stroking his throbbing cock.

“Oh... You’re so ready for me...” Kelly whispered into his ear, her stomach pressing against his midsection as she flicked her legs over his lap. “What are you waiting for...”

Wayne didn’t think of stopping, not now, certainly not.

Kelly moved her panties to the side, and he guided himself into her. She screamed aloud as she came instantly. With that orgasm, Kelly’s stomach swelled bigger. Wayne gasped, feeling how big her belly had become. He also felt something else.

She was bigger.

That wasn’t all though, Wayne didn’t notice at that moment, but he was shrinking, slowly becoming smaller under his giant growing girlfriend. He continued to let her ride his dick with a reckless abandon that was sure to drive them both to a quick orgasm.

Or so he thought.

Wayne did feel his orgasm building, it came quickly but frustratingly it never got over the edge, however he could feel Kelly cumming over and over again. Her kegel muscles gripped him hard, every pump it felt like he was somehow becoming harder, thicker, longer. His cock was most definitely growing, he could feel Kelly too becoming larger.

“Fuck... You’re... Getting so big... What’s going on?” Wayne was able to ask as he rapidly felt her body growing around his.

She didn’t reply, she continued to bounce on his thick cock. It felt as if he was being pulled into her, her legs becoming larger around his body. Kelly’s thighs once were on his side, normal and lean but now they looked so much bigger as he felt her knees bump into his arms. Her stomach was looking larger by the second and the swelling dome was no longer contained to his lower abdomen, it was pressing more on his chest now.

He paused and looked around the room, noticing finally that it wasn’t her that was growing alone, he was shrinking. The room around him had become massive compared to his body. The pillow he was sitting against was now like a bouncy castle and only getting bigger, yet his cock was still growing.

“Kelly...” His voice was fading beneath her swelling form.

There was no reply, he was on the edge, still, building but never reaching the explosion he was desperate to receive. He looked down and saw his gigantic cock, it was now almost bigger than his body, somehow his hips were able to allow him to fuck his giant girlfriend.

The reality of the situation made no sense to him as it seemed that she was only getting bigger whilst he was getting smaller, somehow he was still in control of fucking her. He tried to stop but he was too horny and weak to resist, his body in an almost autopilot of lust.

The panties she had moved aside were now resting against Wayne’s back, keeping him in place. He was just a cock insert now, her kegel muscles were pulling him further in and finally he felt his pleasure increase, finally after all this time. Everything had gone dark; he was stuck inside her pants and her vagina was milking his dick which was now multiple times bigger than his body. The build-up he felt from his gargantuan balls was telling him it was finally time to explode, the heavy weight and immense heat from her body was incredible. Wayne felt giant fingers against his back as they pushed him further into the spasming pussy.

It was too much.

“I’m going to...”

Both Kelly and Wayne jolted awake, their eyes opening and seeing that the worlds they had just experienced were just dreams. Their arousal however had followed them.

Wayne looked down at his throbbing dick, reaching towards the very tall ceiling and it was most definitely bigger than it had been since he fell asleep.

“Did I grow again?”

“Did I grow again?” Kelly said the exact moment that Wayne thought it.

He looked over to her body and he could see that she had changed too.

Kelly’s gigantic stomach had gone down, she was back to being as slim as before but there was a very noticeable difference in her body, she was much taller, the bed was far too small to contain her long body, her legs were draped over the end of the bed. Her whole body had scaled up. She was probably close to fifteen feet tall at this point, her body was truly massive, especially compared to her smaller boyfriend Wayne.

Kelly’s hands roamed her giant body, and she moaned at the extra sensitivity she was feeling, mostly because she was turned on. Her massive hands started at her boobs, and she gave them a big squeeze, letting out a big moan when she pinched her very hard nipples.

Slowly she let her hands slide down her lean body, paying particular attention to her now flat belly. Kelly did wonder how she had lost that much cum in that much amount of time, she was gargantuan and yet in the span of a few hours it was entirely absorbed into her body.

If she wasn’t so turned on she would’ve pieced together that it made her grow.

Wayne did put those two together though. He pondered for a second before he started to stroke his thick cock.

Kelly’s fingers danced around her clit.

The two of them were just masturbating on the bed, Kelly hadn’t even noticed that Wayne was on the pillow next to her.

“Hey...” He said in a husky voice.

Kelly jumped and looked to her side, her head was larger and this close, Wayne gasped when her eyes were on him, it made him feel like prey. The size difference was immense at this point but there was one thing that had scaled up along with Kelly.

Wayne’s dick.

He had stood up and the dick looked absolutely huge on his frame. Kelly didn’t even think about measurements or how the blood should make him pass out, she just reached out and pulled him towards her face, her giant mouth opening for the throbbing prick.

“Fuck!” Wayne yelled when her tongue made contact with his dick.

Wayne was being used as a lollipop at this point, her tongue swirled around the burning hot rod in Kelly’s mouth, and she sucked with so much force that Wayne wondered if she was going to get his soul out through his prick.

The pleasure that Kelly had felt in her dream was still there, sucking his big dick felt similar to the dream Wayne, even if the dream version continued to grow and swell in her mouth. Her fingers rubbed her clit, and she felt her body tense as the rising orgasm built up within her.

Her jaw was starting to clench around Wayne's cock and they both moaned as a powerful orgasm took over her body. Writhing beneath him, she turned her head, the grip she had on his dick and the size difference meant that his whole body was pulled by his dick. It was as if he was a pacifier, his body acting as the guard to stop the rubber tip from being swallowed.

The sensation was overwhelming, and Wayne felt his balls tighten and his cock throb deep inside her giant maw.

"Aaahh!" he yelled, signalling the impending explosion.

Kelly's hand flew to her mouth, the massive palm holding him in place, she actually pushed his body against her lips even more, making sure not to waste a single drop of the cum that was about to explode into her mouth.

A torrent, a tidal wave of jizz filled her mouth, puffing her cheeks within seconds. The amount was impressive for his size, but he was far from being done. Each pulse of his cum that pumped into her mouth, she had made it, so she was forced to swallow it, trying to live out her dream.

Kelly's belly was starting to feel the effects, Wayne hadn't slowed down at all, her belly was starting to bulge. Wayne couldn't see, his body was pressed against her face, but if he could've, he would've seen a belly similar to how Kelly started off in his dream.

His pumping eventually slowed down and with a big audible swallow followed by a pop as Wayne's still hard dick was removed from Kelly's massive mouth. The gasping of her giant woman filled the room. Wayne was lucky not to have broken a bone from the force her tensing body had put on him. He was panting, the orgasm took a lot out of him. He sat down, letting his dick lay on the soft mattress in front of him. He surveyed that massive landscape that was his girlfriend. Paying particular attention to the swell of her stomach as it rose and fell with her deep breaths.

His dick was almost as long as his legs at this point, the term tripod was apt, he was too exhausted to even laugh at his own joke, he just wondered how he was still so hard.

"Still got more for me?"

Kelly's voice was deep and husky, the noise of her playing with her pussy was music to his horny ears.

"I've always got more for you..."

He didn't even care about what this might do, he stood up and put his arms high above his head so that Kelly's hand could pick him up like a doll. The force of air rushing past his face was immense as he was sent at an almost supersonic speed for him to her very ready vagina.

"I want..." She paused as she quivered. "I want you... To do it..."

The idea of her tiny boyfriend having to walk and take a step or two to insert that monster into her, it was enough to make her orgasm alone. Kelly was certainly getting off on the idea of the size difference now.

Wayne wasted no time and took that first step, oddly aroused by the need to take a second step before his gigantic tip could even rest against her lips. His bulbous head spread her open and Kelly screamed loudly from afar. Thanks to the size it felt like metres of distance to cover before Wayne could meet her face. Not that he really cared right now, he only had one thing on his mind. Throbbing and swelling in his consciousness.

They were both stunned to feel how much of the space his cock took up inside her, it wasn't going to remain that loose for long however, another surge of growth came over Wayne and his dick felt like it might combust from the heat. Thicker and longer, it grew, finally stretching her already very willing pussy to its limits.

"Fucck!" She screamed. "You're so fucking big!"

"You're. One. To. Talk." Wayne grunted between thrusts, the size of her body acting as a resistor to his advances, her long and powerful legs were in danger of crushing the tiny man. He ignored the hazards, mostly because of the bliss he was feeling, Kelly too, she was lost to the sensations of being so utterly filled by her tiny man.

He was doing his best and he did make Kelly cum a few times but like all things since the accident, it never felt like enough. Wayne felt her powerful hand grip his body, he gave in, he knew what was coming next.

Like some sort of toy, Kelly used her strength to drive him in and out of her like some sort of dildo, although this was much better than that, it was warm, throbbing and...

"Still growing?" Kelly thought to herself before another orgasm washed over her body.

She had lost count, so had Wayne, but none of that mattered in this very instant.

Wayne was on the edge; the massive eruption that was building was finally coming to a head. Wayne's ragdoll body flopped against her with each thrust, he had lost control of his limbs as he tried to resist the explosion, the damn being pushed to its limits. He reached out and grabbed onto what he could, one powerful thrust of his hips, Kelly was in sync with him so she held him there and he rested his head against her lower belly, the mild swell was about to become something much bigger.

Wayne let out a guttural roar as his resistance gave way and his cock started pumping cum directly into her womb. She was already so full from the cum she had swallowed but now there was another internal part of her swelling. Her stomach looked like it was attached to some high pressure pump the way it grew and swelled against Wayne's face, his body was being moved by it now, the skin beneath his head was not soft enough to cushion anything, it was like a water balloon being filled up.

He couldn't resist not looking, he let go, the movement made his dick hit against her cervix and his cum flooded her womb. He watched in awe as his gigantic girlfriend's body was slowly just turning into a massive belly beneath his tiny body.

Kelly's moans and screams indicated to Wayne that it wasn't just him that was enjoying the sensations, there was clearly more than enough pleasure to go around.

The orgasm lasted for a few minutes, her stomach was much bigger this time when it was all over, Wayne wearily slid backwards and watched the small stream of cum dribble out of her utterly fucked vagina. He ducked under her raised knee and walked up the side of the bed, marvelling at the taut orb that was now his girlfriend, utterly filled to the brim.

He saw her face and there was still life behind her, mostly glazed over eyes. Her lips were moving but there weren't a lot of words coming out, a small amount of cum had dribbled from her lips onto her cheek down to the pillow that was cushioning her giant head.

"What... What are you saying?"

Kelly couldn't speak up, nor answer, Wayne made his way to her face and leaned in close to hear what she was saying.

"Big..."

"Yes. You are huge, look at you..." Wayne felt his cock twitch again, unbelievably.

"Bigger..."

Wayne felt shock freeze him, he looked at her with wide eyes, adrenaline pumping, making his cock start to swell once more. He couldn't believe it, she was absolutely massive, neither of them knew what it would do to her body but here she was, looking spaced out and utterly swollen with his seed. Wayne saw her mouth start to move again. He held his breath to hear, to make sure he had heard her right.

"Bigger... Please...."
