Chapter Five

Friday was finally here. Waking up it felt like Christmas morning; I was excited beyond measure. My hands were shaking when I was getting ready. I had managed to get myself an outfit too, I had dressed up as Fist, the hero that crosses over into the Penny Plunder story to help her back to her world.

A bit on the nose...

I shrugged it off. The outfit was quite basic really, a stretchy red suit that is meant to highlight the muscles of Fist but on me it isn't quite as flattering. My yellow boots look sturdy as if made from an indestructible alloy, as do my gauntlets, thankfully for me they are made of foam. I put on the red eye mask with the yellow shades over my eyes and strapped up my tool belt.

“Lame but certainly my brand of lame.” I said to myself looking at the clenched glowing fist that was on the chest of the outfit. Louise's face flashed in my head. “Her brand of lame too.” That wasn't said as confidently, I was more hoping on that one.

I had to take my gauntlets off to drive to the store, but I was glad to get there nice and early. I let myself in and made sure the finishing touches were put on the shop. I text Louise telling her the back door was open, and she could let herself in. After about half an hour, I was done, very happy with the look of the shop.

“There...” I said aloud to myself.

“Looks good.” A sultry voice came from behind me.

I knew exactly who it was, I couldn't quite bring myself to turn around immediately, I had been shocked by Louise's entrance and I was not quite ready to turn around and witness what was sure to be the greatest outfit of all time.

I clenched my fist and slowly turned around and I saw her standing there in the doorway, she was standing sideways, showing off her very bottom-heavy profile. I thought my eyes might explode out of my skull.

An ass man such as myself knew this was going to be incredible, maybe the greatest thing I could ever hope to see and over the past few months her ass has only gotten more firm and round thanks to her focus on her ass in the gym. However, seeing the result is something so different it is almost impossible to describe.

The suit she had on, a cruel joke to Penny in the story, was a feast for the eyes. The suit was primarily black, a latex style look that covered her from the neck down, that would be a generous way to look at it as the outfit had many cut aways throughout the whole suit which were outlined with a strip of grey. The small windows to show her torso, arms midsection and even her boobs.

Each small cut was sharp and angled, it made for a very pretty and intricate design that looked stunning. Her boobs were quite out thanks to the slits above her boobs and the middle design that showed off her cleavage.

My eyes travelled lower to admire how her waist was on show, this was a big part of why she was going to the gym. The outfit only had two connecting parts from the top to the bottom, her waist was entirely on show, her belly accented by the curved straps as they traced to her hips. The sides that started to stretch the fabric.

Finally, the part I had been waiting to see, her hips and ass. The suit was covered from her waist down, no more slits in the fabric and no skin on show, there were still patterns and designs there for the eyes to soak in but the artist who designed the outfit said in an interview that he didn't feel right showing off Penny's legs or butt, the rest of it was funny but that was too far.

I had set the expectation in my head already with Louise's outfit now showing off the part I wanted to see but actually the contrast made it stand out more. Her massive cheeks stretched the fabric so taut that I was genuinely worried if she bent over she might split the latex looking material.

Her wide hips looked so womanly and feminine, but her bubble butt made her look obscene, perfect for me, but the suit didn't hide much at all. There was very little left to the imagination. Her butt looked so much bigger in this suit than it did in her jeans. Each cheek looked about as big as my head because of how much the suit showed off her butt, it was incredible.

I had always known that she had a big bum, she had a shelf even, but seeing it now, it just looked so much bigger, more on show, less restrained.

This was Louise, uncensored.

I couldn't get over the size of her rear, it looked big before but now we're entering huge territory. A sizable girth to the girl was now entering a size that was beyond what porn would be able to show and she was natural, yet it was starting to get a shape closer to the women with BBLs.

Has she really grown since I hired her? Had she made that much difference in such a short time?

The thoughts of seeing her like this more often filled my mind, a dream-like scenario flooded my head of seeing her take it off, seeing her in the shower, having her giant ass bouncing on top of me.

My mind was racing and going to a very horny place.

I need to stop...

I couldn't really form any words, it was hard to think of anything other than impure thoughts.

"I must say... I think I did expect this reaction." Louise giggled. "Watch this."

She bounced on her feet to turn around, I thought I was going to pass out, the lack of support that the fabric was offering meant that her butt was jiggling right before me. I could see every ripple over her tight ass.

"Do you think this makes my butt look big?" She laughed at her own joke, I had to hide myself behind the counter, my own outfit wasn't great at hiding my swelling member.

“Oh my god...” I stammered.

Louise’s cheeks were turning rosy, and she looked over her shoulder to me, gauging my reaction.

“You’re fun Ryan.” She gave one final shake before she turned around and walked towards me.

My face felt like it was on fire, about as hot as my dick felt as it raged with arousal, an arousal so great, I wondered how I might survive the event.

Louise placed a covered hand on my shoulder, and she pat it before leaning in. “It’s okay, take a minute. We’ve got all day to last yet.”
