

Chapter Twelve

She did not need to be told twice, my whole body started to swell, rapidly I could feel the magic pumping into me, and I was growing rounder and bigger by the second. The weight of the filling was making my body sag downward so the growth was in my lower half and belly mostly but even after a few seconds I could feel my arms becoming heavier and my tits. I didn't want to miss a thing, I just watched in the mirror as my body became more obscenely morphed. I felt the levitation start to waver and the weight was increasing on my body.

“Bed...” I moaned just as I lost my footing and I fell back onto the floor, however the floor was replaced with a mattress.

My body grew, second by second I expanded and felt Nyx's hands playing with all of my jiggling fat. I was rapidly approaching my size before I passed out, my body pinning me to the mattress floor, things around me being moved by my girth.

“So... Big...” I cooed.

The walls suddenly faded in a puff of smoke and the floor turned into one giant mattress. The beach was a good backdrop to look into, the smell of the salt in the air made me feel very relaxed and at peace as I outgrew my previous size. My tits started to join in and were swelling larger by the second. I was huge, massive, gigantic and only growing. Nyx, I could hear her and feel her but there was no sight of her. I had far surpassed being able to see around my filling form. My body was running out of ways to store the cum inside me and unlike last time, I wasn't leaking. I could feel my body becoming more turgid and the sloshing was still jiggling and moving my body but as I continued to grow the sound was growing more silent as any remaining air pockets that would make the sound were being filled.

I groaned as my body started to swell sideways to accommodate the growth, I was becoming a blob, stuck in the depths of this magical mattress, my pussy was being worked by Nyx the whole time and I was just cumming over and over again.

The magic... It must be keeping me conscious.

I felt the growing slow as I approached capacity.

“Nyx!” I yelled, a genuine worry starting to fill my mind. “I’m... I’m going to pop!”

Nyx was lost between my legs, it felt like she had slid her whole body in my soft, cavernous and wildly inflated pussy.

“Nyx!” I screamed, trying to get her attention.

There was a creaking sound.

Fuck...

I saw my skin, all around me, my arms, legs and even my head had sunken into my growing fat body, and I could see a reddish hue start to cover my body.

“Nyx! Please!” She was too lost, and I was barely holding it together either.

It was all becoming too much. I kept cumming, over and over, swelling bigger by the second.

Stretch marks started to cover my body, the magic was unable to stop my skin from exceeding its limits and there was a thunderous pop followed by a goopy splat.

The sky was still there, blue and beautiful as ever.

I heard squelching and I tried to move, surprisingly I found I was able to do so. I lifted my head up and saw the mattress and even some of the sand was covered in a torrent of cum. I looked down and saw my body was back to normal.

What is normal anymore...

Nyx breached the glob of cum that had completely covered her and she gasped for air.

“What the fuck was that...” I asked her.

“Hot, amazing, sexy, incredible...” She smirked, licking a glob of cum from her hand. “Do I need to go on?”

I shook my head and looked at the mess I had caused, my body completely unscathed.

“I told you... in this place, rules don’t apply...” Nyx stood up and clicked her fingers, the cum disappeared and she stood tall over me.

This place...

“Why would you ever want to leave?” She laughed. “That is what you’re thinking... Well... It can get lonely on your own...” She reached out a hand to me.

I grasped it and she yanked me to my feet. “That is why I am so glad I found someone like you...” She smiled, leaning in close and locking lips with me.

There was a strange feeling within me, like a limb that I had regained control over, something long dormant coming back to use. I felt her chubby body and brought my palms up to her breasts, giving them a squeeze. They were modest Cs at a guess but that was about to change.

Focusing to harness this feeling, I felt her boobs swell against my hands. Nyx moaned against my lips, and I kept focusing.

Cup sizes sped past as if we were reciting the alphabet.

Seconds went by and I felt a strain that made me wince.

I stopped and broke the kiss, looking at the newly busty Nyx. She was panting hard, clearly taken aback.

“You...” She gasped.

“I... Uh...”

Nyx didn’t care about how or why I was able to do that, but she just threw herself at me, her huge tits crashing against my chest, causing us both to fall onto the soft mattress. Nyx plunged her tongue into my mouth and started to aggressively make out with me. My hands moved around her body, resting on her ass.

The feeling was back, and I did the same thing again, focusing on using that power and I could feel her body grow against mine. Her weight increased and I could feel myself sinking into the mattress, the growth wasn't limited to her ass, her whole body was growing fatter by the second until she broke the kiss off.

"This... This is fun..." She cooed. "I can see why you like it so much..."

"It's missing something though..." I teased.

Nyx threw herself off of me and sat on her fat ass and spread her legs wide, displaying her dripping pussy to me.

I clicked my finger and saw her labia grow before my eyes. I could certainly see the appeal. She was fat, big and swollen, her huge tits crashed against her belly as she writhed from the orgasm brought on from the sudden expansion of her vagina.

I brought a hand to her clit and felt her lips swell around my hand and slowly up my arm. I planted my face into her boob, suckling her elongated nipple as she continued to swell beneath my body.

Cumming an uncountable number of times, my power was seemingly at its limits after a few seconds of growth, she was almost the size I was before we came here except she had much bigger tits. I couldn't help but feel envious for a second before I felt a swelling on my chest. Nyx was somehow still in control enough to use her power on me.

I looked down as the bikini top that had survived my last growth was stretching in a desperate attempt to cover my rapidly swelling boobs.

"We're going to have so much fun here..." I moaned, as my boobs entered the latter half of the alphabet.

"You've got some training to do, but I'm a good teacher." The immobile Nyx said before clicking her fingers.

I watched in awe as the massive blob of a woman started to levitate before me. Her huge form being able to move that freely was incredible to see. She hefted her gut and smirked at my busty form.

“I think you could stand to get a bit more meat on your bones though...” She said, raising her hand to click when I held out my hand to stop her.

“Let me. You didn’t make me big enough last time...”
