

Perfect girlfriend

DECEMBER 2021

---

Chris had it all in life: excellent health, a well paid job and a loving girlfriend, Jessi. She was a petite blonde, blue-eyed beauty with a Russian background.

They were deeply in love with each other but she couldn't fulfil a fantasy Chris had been toying with for a long time: he had a thing for brown girls. The idea of dating a girl outside his race was extremely exciting for him.

One day he found a body-altering device in a second hand shop and decided to give it a try. He tried on random people on the streets and to his surprise the machine was actually working, so he turned his attention to his girlfriend.

Would he really do this to Jessi? It would mean ruining her life in a way as she wouldn't be able to prove her identity and would have to live as an illegal immigrant. Not to mention that she was quite proud of her ethnicity and might not be happy to be transformed from a petite blonde to a curvy Latina.

Chris played with the idea for a few weeks, then one day while laying on the bed on a lazy Sunday morning he finally gave in to his fantasies and pulled the trigger.

PERFECT GIRLFRIEND

Jessi was freshening up in front of the mirror in their bedroom when the transformation happened. To her horror her complexion shifted from Nordic to Mediterranean as her pretty blue eyes progressively gained colour across the whole spectrum of irises hues through green to hazel and finally settled for a rich dark brown colour. Her blonde hair went through a similar process as it darkened to a full brown colour until her roots. Her skin took a progressively deeper tan while her facial features lost most of their Caucasian features.

“What the fuck is wrong with my face? Why do I look Mexican?”

The girl’s physique also changed going from a short 160 cm / 5’3” to a full 170cm/ 5’7”, making her on the tall side. Her breasts inflated from the barely noticeable A cup she was used to a pair of firm C cups. Her taller and curved body also responded differently to her and gained new mannerisms. Instead of the overly feminine and sweet girl she used to be, she began behaving in a more impulsive, masculine way, keeping with Latina girl stereotypes.

Unnoticed by her, her pheromones and hormone balance changed too, replacing her mild fresh aroma with an intense, sweet, erotic flavour men were going to sense from then on.

After the transformation was complete, Jesse looked unmistakably latina. "Dios mio! What happened to mi! Shit, why estoy hablando Espanol?". Without realising it, the language centres in her brain had been rewired to turn Spanish from the second language she studied at school to her native tongue, relegating English to a second language she never fully mastered.

Chris was in heaven seeing his girlfriend turning into his dream girl "That's so sexy! - he thought - She looks just like I was hoping for! Her accent is also on spot!" However, he pretended to be as shocked as her and asked her "How are you feeling, my love?"

"I'm... eshocked!" - said Jessi, struggling to find words. She kept on stroking her hair looking for traces of her former blonde hair but all she could see was natural, black wavy hair. Meanwhile, lots of thoughts were chaotically floating in her mind: "My job! I'm going to lose it! Chris! What will he think of this? Oh Dios mio, I look so different, will he still love me like this?" Then new memories began entering her brain, together with an odd peace "What was I thinking, of course he likes me, I'm so grateful to this gringo for taking me as his chica and helping me to settle down in this new country! I'm clearly not a Norteamericana!"

It sounded kinda wrong to her as she still had conflicting memories of being a white girl until very recently but suddenly she felt very aroused by the bare thought of her boyfriend being in the bedroom so she stopped staring at herself and joined Chris in his bed. "I'm sorry mi amor, I don't know what happened to me, I'm a bit loca sometimes jaja!" And quickly began to undress, showing off her new shapely body.

While she was always a bit frigid as a blondie, the new Jessi was absolutely amazing in bed and didn't stop when Chris asked her for a blowjob, something the old Jessi would have never considered, despite how much she loved Chris.

Everything about this new body was steaming hot, thought Chris, who was having the best sex of his life. The strong scent of her hair, the exotic colour of her skin pressed against his own, her confidence and new mannerisms... everything about her was so intoxicating!

After having sex, Jessi began smoking a cigarette, something she never did before but that felt natural in that moment, and, still in lingerie, tried to recall her past. Now her new memories had mostly replaced the old ones, yet she clearly recalled stroking her blonde hair and applying makeup around her blue eyes.

Jessi was too afraid of being considered crazy by her boyfriend so she didn't open up with him about her doubts but asked him if she seemed normal to him. Chris disguised his true feelings and casually mentioned that she could have worked out more to make her body more tonic.

Jessi concluded that being a white girl must have been only a delusion and that she had always been a Latina. As suggested by Chris, she began working out regularly to be sexy for her man, something she never did before.

She began training hard to make her body even more toned and curvy. She now felt stronger as working out gave her the confidence she needed to match with her new looks and mannerisms. She began embracing her culture more and began speaking Spanish regularly with her new Hispanic friends.

At the same time Chris began complaining about being on a tight budget and Jessi not contributing to it. While the old Jessi had a decent job as a secretary in a law firm, the Latina girl she was now was not hireable due to her illegal status, so the only way she found to earn some honest money with her body was to set up a Onlyfans account and post the sluttiest pictures she could take. Latina hotties were in high demand so she quickly began to earn good money to feed her increasingly lavish lifestyle.

“Hola Chris! Like my new bikini, si?” “Jessi, you’re so hot! I love you so much!” - a few months later the girl had completely succumbed to her new persona. She was a slutty Latina and wasn’t ashamed of it. She loved Chris deeply but she wasn’t afraid to use her sexuality to get what she wanted.

Her slutty persona began to take over as OnlyFan was not enough for her anymore. She began earning extra money as a cam girl and again had no difficulties as a hot Latina.

On his side, Chris was the happiest man alive, he was still together with the girl she loved and she happened to embody the exact kind of exotic beauty he lusted for in women. His family was struggling to understand why would he dump his sweet girlfriend for an immigrant Hispanic girl who barely spoke English but all they cared for was his happiness so they accepted her.

Eventually, Jessi got pregnant and Chris looked forward to growing his children together with his hot Latina girlfriend.
