Chapter Eleven

-A few moments earlier-

“Come with me child.” The elder commanded, his voice booming and ringing in my ears.

He opened a portal, and we were floating high in the sky looking down at a neighbourhood. I didn’t recognise it, but I felt the same pull that I did when I first got to Kim’s place. I could sense my wand was inside one of the houses and I floated there next to the elder.

“You don’t know what’s about to happen, do you?”

I shook my head.

“You don’t know why it happened, do you?”

His questions were making me feel stupid, so I shook my head.

“Foolish child. You’ve been here for over 3000 years. The knowledge that these humans can acquire in just 10 years, and you can’t even figure this out.”

He grumbled before lifting his hands up in front of him. “You don’t apply yourself, maybe it’s the immortality, maybe it’s the lack of consequence...” He trailed off and I saw golden lights appear at his elbows and flow towards his fingers. “These humans would destroy planets to get a fraction of the power that you have, yet you waste its application and your potential.”

The lights stopped on each of his fingertips and then a gigantic wand appeared between his two hands.

“It’s been hundreds of years since I’ve needed to use my wand.”

The wand was huge and thick, engraved with so many intricate designs and runes, its very presence made me feel like I was being compressed under a giant boulder. The crackle of power from it as he moved it to one of his aged hands.

He aimed it at the village below and with a giant burst of energy there were hundreds of lightning bolts that struck every house except for Kim’s.

“Clear the bystanders.”

Then he put the wand down to his side.

“Now we wait for the magic to run its course.”

I stood beside him nervously. All his talking put me on edge.

Beneath us there was a crashing sound, I darted to Kim’s place and saw a cloud of smoke coming out of the side of the building.

Then I saw it.

Her tits.

They were growing out of the hole made in the wall and swelling faster by the second as she outgrew her driveway and still they continued to grow.

“This is the power that Kim has taken because of your foolish action.”

I couldn't think straight or answer his question. I could only focus on the boobs that were still just rapidly swelling and growing down the street. The rest of the house finally gave way, and I could now see Kim. She was being propelled into the air by her rapidly expanding breasts, she looked like a blemish on the skin from this distance as her boobs continued their growth. I could see her body writhing and wriggling as her boobs inflated larger by the second.

Is she...

Trying to put the thought of my mind, I turned my attention to the Elder. “How big is she going to get?”

“Until you interfered with your broken wand, she would've stopped at a G cup.”

So, this is my fault.

“You failed to even realise that she cast a spell with your wand when she had it.” He turned to me, ignoring the street sized tits growing still. “You then cast your spell to regain control of your wand.” He paused again as Kim's tits started to engulf more homes. “You dropped it, she cast a spell, you know what that means, where is the wand now?” He turned to me with a knowing look on his face. “It's no longer your wand. It's hers.”

I looked back to Kim and could see her orgasming on top of her massive boobs, the sensation of her nerve endings being so expanded must cause her unimaginable pleasure. There was one clear thing for me to see though. In her hand, unbelievably, she still had a grasp on a wand.

“I’m sorry Elder... I’m so sorry...”

“I know you are child; the issue isn’t about you being remorseful, you always are.” He lifted a withered finger and pointed to neighbourhood spanning tits. “The problem is that this level of mistake can do so much damage, it can expose us, it can do so many bad things and now this human has a fairy wand. Something that hasn’t happened in over 400 years.” I heard the anger in his voice as he gripped his wand tighter. “This is too great of a mistake for me to let you off lightly Honeydew.”

No...

“I believe you have a good soul, no ill will, you are just careless. So, my punishment for you, you have to fix this. I will freeze time for you and this woman, Kim, and you need to fix this. Without my help.”

With that he vanished, instantly, there was no portal, no spell effect that I could recognise, I just saw him one second and he was gone the next.

Looking around, sure enough, the rest of the city had frozen, Kim’s growth had finally come to a halt. Each of her boobs was probably miles long at this point, they rose taller than buildings from the nearby city. They were immense.

I flew down to Kim, noting that the wand was no longer pulsating. As I got closer I could hear moaning loudly.

“Kim! Kim!” I called out to the woman overloaded with pleasure.

It was no use, she was too far gone, every movement she made had sent ripples and shockwaves through her breasts and whilst they were settling down because there was no longer any wind or external factors affecting her tits she was still so incredibly worked up thanks to their gargantuan size. I could feel the warmth from them as I got closer and finally stopping just before her body I saw into her eyes, they were glazed over, as if she had been lost to lust for eons.

This is going to be harder than I thought...

I started to think about how I might even begin to reverse this, I had caused so much damage already that I was reluctant to even pick up my wand, it was the reason we were in this mess after all.

Oh! I know! I'll start by fixing my wand, which should give Kim enough time to calm down and then she might be able to help me.

A sound thought, I picked up my wand, ready to examine the flaws in it so I could start to make an attempt to fix it.

I felt a powerful strike of magic hit me squarely in the chest. I looked down at where the magic had forked and struck each of my boobs. In an instant I felt an immense weight on my chest, my boobs grew into the size of, ironically enough, honeydew melons.

The sensation was strange and foreign, as fae, we didn't usually feel desire or lust, we had no need for sexual features but there was something strange and enjoyable about how they shook on my chest.

I looked over to Kim, the only person capable of moving in time other than the elder. There was an exhausted look on her face, but her arm was stretched out with the wand clearly aimed at my body.

“Your... Turn...” She panted. “You’ll enjoy... Being this big... I’m sure...”

No... She couldn’t possibly...

I felt the sensation overwhelming my chest as my boobs started to swell again, a feeling made my whole-body tingle, and my eyes started to roll into the back of my head.

I let out a moan.

“Oh fuck...”
