A man with short grey hair, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt and a dark tie, stands in front of a large mirror. He is looking at his reflection. The reflection shows him from the front, wearing glasses. The man's hands are slightly raised as if he is examining himself. The background is a simple room with a white brick wall and a white office chair.

It's so strange — just yesterday morning everything was so bad, and now everything is just perfect.
