

Chapter 40

(Continuing On from Last Chapter)

"Akari," Turning to Kushina again who looked nervous now I raised my eyebrow when she avoided looking me in the eye as she fidgeted in place.

Waiting patiently for her to speak I found it curious how all the other girls almost as one made themselves scarce leaving me alone with her even managing to drag the new girls along with them.

Taking a deep breath Kushina finally turned to me and still looking flushed all but screamed "Before you leave again, take me on a date!"

Blinking at her sudden outburst I nonetheless nodded automatically making the redhead throw her fist up in the air in celebration.

"Yatta~"

Chuckling at the cute scene I pulled the redhead in for a hug causing her to slightly squeal only making me chuckle harder.

"You are seriously cute sometimes, you know that?" I muttered into her ear causing the redhead to shiver and snuggle into my chest, her being tall enough now where she could place her head in the crook of my neck.

"Stop teasing me~" She lightly hit my chest with a fist but made no move to remove herself from my embrace.

Bending my head slightly I kissed the side of her head and held her closer just feeling content for moments like these. "I can't help it. My Kushina is just so adorable sometimes."

Pulling her head slightly from my neck she looked up at me with a pout on her red cheeks. "Don't call me adorable, we're not kids anymore." She highlighted that by hitting my chest again.

"Trust me," Stealing a small kiss from the girl much to her enjoyment/embarrassment I let my hands wander down her curvy figure before stopping just above her butt. "I know that perfectly well~" I teased stealing another kiss from her this one lasting a bit longer than the first.

"Hmph, you pervert. You're lucky I love you." She muttered with a huff with her head turned to the side childishly with her face now glowing crimson.

It still surprised me how casually Kushina could mutter that now without reservation ever since I brought her parents back.

"And I love you, my heart." I let out in a soft voice as I brought up one of my hands up to her cheek and softly turned her head in my direction again taking her by surprise. "The one responsible for making sure I don't turn into a complete monster with all the power I now have."

"...Akari." Kushina whispered with wide eyes taken aback by my confession before her expression turned soft and she pulled me into a kiss this time.

"Mm." Closing my eyes I hugged the redhead closer to me enjoying the way her body molded itself perfectly with my form as if two pieces of a puzzle coming together.

I was so close now to finally finishing things off in this world that for a moment I forgot why I was doing it in the first place. To live a carefree life with my loved ones while going on adventures together throughout the cosmos and experience all that this new life had to offer us.

Before our kiss got too heated Kushina pulled away from me looking flushed and panting hotly in place as she caressed my cheek tenderly. "Save it for our date mister~" She teased me with a sexy smirk on her face before she suddenly disappeared from my arms and hearing her giggle in my head.

Left hot and bothered I clicked my tongue in slight annoyance. 'Wait until I get my hands on her.'

Shaking my head to clear my thoughts I let out a sigh and figured I might as well show the new girls around their new home and saying hello to those I hadn't met yet.

"Sup shithead, come to take a look at your new slave?"

Standing in front of another redhead, this time one with brown eyes and a slightly smaller bust than Kushina, I couldn't help but let out a sigh knowing that this girl was going to give me a lot of headaches going forward.

"I see that you're no longer wearing the same clothes anymore." I commented looking at the green tank top and purple shorts she was wearing along with some sneakers that made her look a lot more feminine and girly than her original look.

“Tsk, do you think I actually enjoyed wearing that monstrosity?” She rolled her eyes and crossed her arms under her chest bringing my attention to them. “That pedo forced us to wear that crap and I went along with it because it was better than looking like this and ending up getting raped by all the perverted fucks that followed him.”

“I see. Well, it looks great on you if that helps.” I decided to move away from that topic since I was in a great mood and didn’t want to ruin it.

“Still, that’s not a look you would normally find in this world, did you have one of the girls help you how to use the internet?”

Tayuya seemed to light up a bit when I mentioned the internet and nodded her head with a smirk on her face. “Sure did, though I don’t know how to feel about the future of humanity based on all the porn there is in that thing. Hell, one minute I was looking at cat videos and the next bam! I get hit in the face with so much pussy to make even that pedo blush.”

‘Oh. Of course, she would be the one to find out about porn.’ I thought with a deadpan before I decided to change the subject.

“Humanities pervarsity aside, how are you getting along here?”

Shrugging her shoulders Tayuya took on a more relaxed stance. “It’s alright. Though any place would be better than my last one but I get what yer saying. The porn aside, that internet thing does have a shit ton of cool music that’s been keeping me entertained.”

“Hoh, other than your flute do you have any other instrument you’re interested in learning?” I asked curiously not knowing her interest in the art went deeper than her Genjutsu abilities.

“The piano.” She answered immediately. “Seems I will have to wait until we hop to another world though if I want to get my hands on one.”

“Piano huh, give me a sec.” Concentrating for a sec a piano appeared next to us fully functional and all. “There you go, one piano for the lady.” I looked back at her with a teasing smile enjoying her shocked look.

“...Fuck. I knew you were strong based on what everyone else said about you and due to the monstrous feeling, I get just by being this close to you but seeing you create something from nothing with my own eyes...” She muttered in a slight daze as she ran her hands over it proving that it was indeed very real.

“Don’t sweat it, you’ll get used to it.” I dismissed her worries with a wave of my hand. “You can just store this in our shared inventory and then take it out later when you find a place where to put it.”

Nodding her head, the piano disappeared again now in our Pocket Space before Tayuya turned to me again with a strange look in her eye.

Raising an eyebrow as I saw her making her way towards me with a certain sway to her hips, I was only slightly surprised when she pulled my shirt down forcing me to bend my head and met me halfway in a needy kiss.

Going with the flow I pulled her into my arms only making her moan as we kissed for the next few minutes while our hands did their best to memorize every spot on the others body.

Finally pulling away, Tayuya looked up at me with a hooded look in her eyes and blushing cheeks. “Yeaah. I think I’m going to like it here.” I tried not to react when I felt a hand grabbing my junk and only just managed to do so. “I’m going to like it a lot~”

“Careful there.” I whispered pulling her hand away and turning her around where he back now was facing my front and grabbed ahold of her breasts getting a moan from the sexy redhead. “If you keep doing things like that, then I won’t be responsible for what happens next.” I muttered and to make my point across I twisted her nipple underneath her shirt.

‘Of course, she’s not wearing a bra.’

“Mmn that’s what I like to hear~” She moaned out all the while pressing her ass against my junk and wiggling it.

Giving her breasts a last squeeze, I finally separated from her much to her visible disappointment. “Sorry but that will have to be all for now unless you want Kushina to murder us both.”

Taking a moment to calm down, Tayuya clicked her tongue in annoyance and looked away. “Tsk, I thought I had you there for a moment. And you don’t have to tell me that, that she-devil already made sure to tell everyone what’s to become of them if we go ahead of her.”

“Hmhmhm I see.”

Yeah, I could totally see my cute redhead going all she-devil as Tayuya so nicely put it on everyone to make sure they know their place.

“Anyways Tayuya take care, I have to handle a few other things. Let me know if something catches your interest and I’ll see what I can do.” Giving the feisty redhead a nice spank for tempting me like that, I disappeared.

I still had a few things I wanted to handle to make sure my date with Kushina went off without any problems.

=====

(Several Hours Later, Demiplane)

“Can I open my eyes yet Akari?”

“Hmhm almost, just a bit longer.”

After using a ton of clones to make everything ready for our date, I was now leading a pouty and blindfolded Kushina to the location of where our date was supposed to take place.

Kushina was dressed in a beautiful dark red kimono with pink and orange leaves and a yellow obi while I was wearing a dark blue and gray one. Her beautiful red hair was done up in a neat ponytail with her bangs framing her pretty face. She had even painted her nails red which she had never done before.

All in all, she looked stunning tonight and I couldn't be happier.

“All right, we're here.” Gently letting go of her hand I removed the blindfold from her eyes and stepped back.

“Finally. Now what did you want to show m-Whoa!”

I could only smile as she beheld what I had spent the last few hours setting up.

Since there were very few festivals in this world, I figured I would just make my own with a bunch of clones and with my creation power.

And to add to the Japanese theme of this world I had decided for a Japanese festival with plenty of stands with food and games to try along with a fireworks show in the end.

“I hope you don't mind that the servers are all just my clones using Henge. Once we reach another world, I will make sure to take you to a genuine Japanese festival.” I apologized sincerely as I wanted to experience that too. The Japanese festivals back in Earth were boring as hell and they were nothing like it was portrayed in anime.

Luckily there were plenty of anime world out there where those types of festivals were still held so I was holding out hope for that.

“Hihihi this is amazing~ Did you make all this Akari?” Kushina apparently didn’t hear me or just chose to ignore me as she grabbed ahold of my left hand and pulled me along behind her all the while rambling happily at everything she saw.

I just trailed behind her with a smile and listened along as she took me from stand to stand not caring that those were actually my clones. We played games, ate yummy food and just enjoyed our afternoon together until at last we found ourselves at the end of our evening sitting down under the fake stars enjoying the fireworks.

“Today was wonderful Akari. Thank you for going into all the trouble of making this for me.” Kushina muttered quietly as she leaned into my chest.

“I’m just glad you enjoyed yourself. Still, I wished I could have taken you to a real festival but they don’t really exist in this world.” I pulled her closer and leaned my cheek against the top of her head.

“I don’t really care about that, to me this is more special than any festival I could ever visit since you built all of this to make me happy.”

“Then it was all worth it then.”

We stayed silent for a moment just watching the fireworks before I felt Kushina start fidgeting in my arms. “Akari, c-can you dismiss all your clones and make a house for us to stay in for the night? I-I don’t really feel like going home tonight.”

Blinking at her request I widened my eyes a second later when I caught her meaning and felt the embarrassment practically radiating off of her. “Y-yeah.”

Within a few moments I dismissed all of my clones and build a cozy house for the evening even managing to get water running through it.

When that was done Kushina grabbed my hand and led me inside with her face facing the ground the whole way until we reached the furnished bedroom.

(Lemon)

Letting go of my hand she stepped forward and without saying a word she untied her kimono and let it fall down her shoulders letting it pool in her feet leaving her in only a racy purple thong.

Kushina then turned and looked at me over her shoulder while biting her lip and slowly turned around to face me with one hand shyly covering her breasts.

“A-Akari d-don’t just stand there staring at me, you take off your clothes too.” Kushina pouted cutely when she saw me rooted in place just staring at her like an idiot.

“Right.” Shaking my head once I willed my shroud to disappear leaving me in my boxers causing Kushina to pout more.

“Mou, you could at least make a show of taking off your clothes.” She complained lightly before dropping her arm to her side baring herself completely to me and stepping up to me with slow steps.

“Akari, please touch me. I have been waiting for this moment for a long time now.” Right after saying that she wrapped her hands around my neck and pulled me down into a kiss that I gladly reciprocated.

Doing what she wanted, I let my arms wonder down her sinful form taking my time to memorize every crook and cranny getting small mewls in return. “Mmn.”

“You are beyond beautiful Kushina.” I muttered into our kiss bringing one of my hands forward and cupping her left breast giving it a squeeze.

“Mmnaa~ More~ Touch me moore~” Her own hands were busy running up and down my torso causing me to shiver.

Pulling out of the kiss much to her momentary disappointment, I kissed my way down her cheeks stopping to give some attention to her ear and neck for a moment before eventually finding myself staring down a pair of breasts. Her cute nipples were already erect and with the way she was breathing loudly causing her breasts to move up and down it was as if they were demanding for me to pay attention to them.

Leaning down I gave her nipple a small lick earning me a moan and for Kushina to wrap her hands around my head and pull me closer to her breasts.

With one hand I squeezed and teased one breast while I used my tongue to pay special attention to the other before switching sides.

“Aaaah~ Akaari~” Sweet moans greeted my ears only encouraging me further. “Good~ It feels soo good~”

We eventually made our way to the bed where I hovered over my redheaded lover and lowered one of my hands down her tummy until I came in contact with her already drenched thong.

“Someone’s eager~” I teased leaning down and taking a nipple into my mouth and biting gently.

Releasing a louder moan, Kushina arched her back shoving her breasts deeper into my face as I felt my hand become slightly wet signaling that she had just cummed. ‘She must have been really looking forward to this.’

“Haah i-it’s all your fault. You made me this mmna way~ So take responsibility damn it!” She panted out as she recovered from her first orgasm.

“Trust me, I will.” I assured and giving her nipples one last teasing kiss I sat up and looked down at her having my breath taken away at what I saw.

Feeling my gaze on her Kushina looked up at me and blushed prettily but made no move to cover herself and instead presented herself fully before me with a shy smile and a flushed face “You’re staring again.” She whispered.

“I can’t help it. Every time I look at you, I ask myself if I’m not living in a dream of my own making for getting so lucky to meet you and fall in love with you.” I muttered quietly with one of my hands seeking hers and holding it gently.

Her face turning softer, she pulled me forward by the hand I was holding into a sweet kiss that somehow managed to transmit all she was feeling towards me at the moment. I felt her love, devotion and overall happiness all at once hit me causing me to slightly choke up.

‘I didn’t realize just how strong the feedback loop would be when I bought the Conjunction perk. It feels completely different from just being able to feel their emotions. My feelings fuel hers and hers fuel mine in return in an endless loop. Haha as expected of Company bullshit.’

Pulling away from our kiss Kushina looked me deep in the eyes and whispered against my lips. “Just promise to never stop loving me and I’ll make sure to remind you everyday that this is real.”

Not even having to think about my answer my mouth moved on its own and answered. “I promise.”

Her face lighting up in happiness, Kushina gave me a smooch on the lips before pulling away. “Good. Now, I’ve waited long enough. Please take me and make me truly yours~”

Smiling at her, I gave her a small kiss on the cheek before sitting up again and this time without delaying I grabbed the hem of her thong and pulled it down before throwing it away.

“My Kushina is truly a pervy girl~ You’re practically drenched~” I couldn’t resist the urge to tease her once more causing her to blush and growl in return.

“Just fuck me already damn it!”

Chuckling at her expected response I nonetheless willed my boxers to disappear causing my cock to spring free and land on her stomach.

Making sure to memorize her astonished look at the size of my dick, I didn’t give her any warning as I suddenly grabbed her hips and sheathed myself in one go.

As I did, I immediately felt how her walls became tight as hell and felt my abdomen become wet as Kushina all but squirted with her eyes rolling to the back of her head and letting out a loud squeal.

“Hyeeeeeeekkk!”

“Fuck.” Closing one of my eyes I stayed still feeling how her pussy massaged me trying in vain to milk me dry.

“S-sho deeeep~ A-Akari’s dick is sho deep inside my pussyyy~” Kushina muttered out deliriously for a bit before coming down from her high and panting.

“With this, we are now one.” I muttered pushing her legs to the side of her head and leaning in to steal a kiss from her causing her to widen her eyes as the new position pushed my dick even further inside her tiny pussy.

“Mmnn shoo deeeep~” Kushina muttered against my lips wrapping her legs around my back not letting me escape and looking at me with literal hearts in her eyes. “Haaah I finally became your woman. I’m soo happy~”

Deciding to ignore the hearts staring back at me with adoration thinking it as a figment of my imagination, I focused back on the task at hand.

That was of course as Kushina requested fucking her until none of us could move.

“Hmhm ready yourself Kushina, I did promise I was going to get back at you for your teasing earlier~”

“Good~”

(Lemon End)

We didn't leave that room for a whole two days.
