Chapter Five

Much to everyone's surprise, instead of the bullet popping my chocolate filled gut, the shell bounced off my gut, it flew backwards into the air and it landed behind the forces, exploding and covering the path they had used to get to me in this lake.

There was silence, I couldn't see them, but I knew them to be there. I knew that round being propelled off of my gut was enough of a warning to them all that their morale was broken.

Their strongest gun. Stopped... By this...

I stared at my wobbling gut and saw it move.

What's this? Did the shot do damage?

My stomach shrunk somewhat, I saw the dishevelled face of the fat woman in charge appear over the horizon of my shrinking stomach, I leaned back and let my chocolate filled balloon retreat.

"What's the matter?" My voice boomed and any ounce of morale left was shattered. The foot soldiers started to run. I glared at the fat commander and a huge grin crossed over my face. “Seems you aren’t prepared for someone...” I stood straight and puffed out my chest. “This big...”

There was no response, there couldn’t have ever been one, especially as I was starting to grow now.

I heard another explosion and a few more after that. The shells bounced off my body and I continued to ascend. Beneath my growing form, the sound of tanks moving as they started to retreat. I leaned over my stomach and saw the only one not retreating was that fat bitch.

I leaned over and picked up her tank and held it in my hands like it was a toy. The woman started to flail as she was clearly stuck in the hole.

“Looks like you could use a hand.” I pinched my fingers around her body and plucked her from the tank. It was a bit of a pull because she was a lot bigger than I had first estimated. Her boobs were fat, about the size of her head but because of the weight on the rest of her frame they looked a lot smaller than they were. This woman’s stomach too was flabby and large with a crease that could be seen through her clothes. However, most of her weight was on her thighs and ass, each of her thighs was bigger in circumference than my waist used to be, even after I started eating today they could’ve probably still kept up. Her ass was massive, it was fat, wobbling and fairly formless, it made me think that she just sat down all day and the food she was eating was settling on her cheeks. She was an exaggerated pear for sure, I even wondered if it might’ve been a side effect of testing something down here or whether it was just her normal indulgence levels when she worked down here, I seriously doubted she was this big when she was hired to work here.

I threw the tank over my shoulder and held the tear drop shaped woman in my hand, looking at her staring up at me with fear washed over her face.

GGGRRRRRRRR

I felt a pang of hunger. Her eyes went wide because she knew exactly what was about to come. I jolted my hand to make her fall onto her big fat ass. Her mouth was agape as I slowly brought her to my lips. I opened wide and the cavernous maw must've looked gigantic to her, compared to her my mouth was at least 20 times bigger than her own and when my hand met my face, I made a vacuum around my lips and pushed her into my face. The large woman felt soft on my tongue, and I suckled on her body because I enjoyed the sensation of her in my mouth, like she was some sort of gelatine sweet. Alas, I was hungry, I didn't want to wait any more and I was still growing. I wanted her to add to that rapid growth spurt I was still undergoing, second by second I could feel that she was smaller on my tongue due to my growing form. 120 ft, 130 ft. There was no end in sight. With a gulp I felt her travel down my throat and join the vast sea of chocolate that was contained in my stomach along with the other guests of my belly.

There was a pain that shot throughout my body and I surged even quicker in size, growing larger by the second bent over and all my muscles tensed, I fell to my colossal knee, the impact making a crater in the biscuit that was at the bottom of the lake.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

My heart pounded in my ears.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

I couldn't think straight, the overwhelming surge of power and growth was too much for my body.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Still, it pounded, it had only been a second or two, but I felt like time was slowing down as my body elongated.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Thhoomp-thhoomp

I felt my vision start to grow dark on the edges.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Thhoomp-thhoomp

My body gave way, and I fell forward onto my giant stomach, it crushed the landscape and sloshed me on top of it.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Still, everything grew darker, and I looked at my hand and watched in awe as it continued to grow and extend further away from me, like I was being stretched through space.

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Thhoomp-thhoomp

...

Thhoomp-thhoomp

Thhoomp-thhoomp

GGGRRRRRRRRRRRR
