

Chapter 11: Fun Night Out

Stepping out of the portal, Cortana and I arrived in the middle of a park. We looked around curiously, finding ourselves alone—thankfully. That meant I didn't have to kill or mentally manipulate some poor schmuck... depending on how I felt at the moment.

"Where are we?" Cortana murmured before a hologram flickered to life in front of her for a moment. She blinked. "Japan? Why are we back here?"

"Hmhm... there's this death game that's supposed to start soon," I replied with a smirk. "All the players will be trapped inside until they beat the game. If they die in the game, they die in real life."

"Another game like before?" Cortana asked, glancing up at me. "I thought you'd had your fill of MMO worlds after Yggdrasil."

"Nah, you're missing the point, love," I said with a shake of my head, my smirk darkening. "The main characters in this setting? They're all going to be defenseless—trapped in hospital beds while their minds are stuck in the game. It's a golden opportunity. The idiot who made the game basically gift-wrapped every major target in the world."

I chuckled to myself, amused by the sheer convenience of it.

"Hah. That's... convenient," Cortana muttered, blinking.

"Yup. Now come on. Let's find ourselves a nice house and get our hands on Sword Art Online. That's where your capabilities come in handy, by the way."

As we started walking, Cortana nodded and tapped a button on her HUD. Instantly, her skin shifted from its signature blue to a natural fair tone—perfectly blending her into this world's environment.

"Hmhmhm... Leafa, Asuna... here I come," I muttered to myself with a smirk.

A Few Hours Later

It didn't take us very long to find some single rich asshole, kill him, and take over his house—after mentally fucking his neighbors into believing he'd sold the place to us and moved to Europe.

After that, it was just a matter of going shopping for new beds and wardrobes, since the guy had been one of those tacky assholes with a horrible sense of fashion.

Well... the main issue was that I just wanted new stuff—but Cortana was kind enough not to comment on that. Best AI girl ever.

“Fufufu... this definitely feels like déjà vu. Didn’t we do something similar back on that alternate Earth?” Cortana asked with amusement as I helped her set up a bunch of monitors and computers around the room at her insistence.

Most of the equipment had been crafted by Cortana in her spare time—usually whenever I was balls-deep in someone, working, or planning something evil. She had plenty of downtime to invent cool gadgets after I gave her a Tony Stark Template.

“We need servants,” I suddenly said after installing the tenth monitor. “Think it’s too late to bring in some of my minions to help with the boring stuff?”

“They practically worship the ground you walk on, Lucan,” Cortana replied with a deadpan stare before sighing. “Haah... I had a feeling this would happen.”

“Hey, I can’t help it, okay? It was a spur-of-the-moment thing—and I really was about to go insane if I spent one more second in that stupid world,” I said, half-defensive.

“Whatever. If you’re going to call in help, at least make sure it’s someone quiet. I don’t want minions who will fly off the handle at any perceived insult towards you.”

“Thanks, love~” I smiled and gave her a quick peck on the cheek. “Hmm... someone quiet, huh? Oh, I have the perfect candidates.”

“Rubedo, Topaz—use your Shroud to teleport to my location.” I instructed telepathically.

A moment later, the two girls arrived.

First was Rubedo, dressed in her usual scantily clad outfit—white mini shorts and a white-and-gold cape/shirt combo that barely covered her breasts. Next to her was Topaz, formerly known as Gargantua. Now in a humanoid form, she had long golden hair, sky-blue eyes, and a pair of white angel wings. She wore a white-and-blue dress that ended just below her thighs.

The best part? As former golems, they were mostly silent unless asked a question—and they had impeccable behavior.

Once they got their bearings, their gazes locked onto me. They ignored everything else, their expressions calm but clearly pleased to have been summoned.

“Girls, I want you two to help Cortana and myself—well, mostly Cortana—with anything she asks. You’ll be staying and living with us for the foreseeable future while we’re in this world. I might bring one of the maids in later to handle cleaning, but we’ll save that for another time.”

“Understood,” they said in perfect unison, their eyes shimmering slightly with emotion at being allowed to stay by my side.

“Good. Now I want you two to tone down your strength. We’re working with delicate equipment, and that’ll also apply while we’re out in the world—your usual strength would break most things here.”

They immediately brought up their HUDs and, using the Toggle perk, lowered their strength stat to 1—roughly human level.

With that handled, we returned to work and, thanks to the new help, managed to finish everything in just a few hours.

“Whew, I’m glad that’s over with,” I said, faking a wipe of sweat from my forehead. “Alright, first order of business—Cortana, what’s the date? We need to know exactly where in the timeline we are before moving forward.”

“Also, look up when SAO launched. That should give us more context.”

A moment later, she had the answer.

“Hahahaha, perfect~!” I laughed happily, even rubbing my hands together like a cartoon villain. “That means they should all be in hospitals by now.”

“It’s time for my fun to begin~”

Across the city of Tokyo—and even beyond—several dozen people suddenly felt a chill crawl up their spines. A creeping, ominous sensation.

And just as quickly, it vanished.

Later That Evening

Walking through the hospital late at night without a care in the world, I whistled a jaunty tune while invisible, following my HUD to the nearest target.

Once I arrived, I cast a simple Muggle-Repelling Charm on the door, then stepped inside and quickly disabled the room's cameras before dropping my invisibility.

I walked to the foot of the bed and took in the girl lying there, seemingly asleep, a black helmet on her head—NerveGear.

She had long strawberry-blonde hair and hazel eyes, her angelic face healthy and peaceful, untouched by time since only a week had passed since the game began.

Moving to the side of her bed, I looked down at her with a smirk.

"Hello, Asuna. Sorry, but I despise sharing—and your happy ending with Kirito isn't happening this time around."

With that, my Shroud materialized behind me and quickly wrapped around Asuna from head to toe. A moment later, since she was unconscious and helpless, the binding took effect without resistance.

Satisfied, I willed the Shroud away.

I didn't want to wake her up right away and heal her though, so I made sure to disable all talents and defenses for her other than Warranty Plan and Time-Savers since I didn't want a stinky pussy after days of not taking a proper bath.

(Lemon/Non-Con)

"Now for the best part." My smirk darkened as I suddenly grabbed the white sheet covering her and pulled it away showing her hospital gown underneath.

Not wasting a single moment, I willed her hospital gown away and was treated to perky breasts and a pair of plain white panties.

"Nice, fifteen and you already have a nice rack." I muttered as I shamelessly brought my hands down to her breasts and started molesting her.

"I probably should have waited until you together with Kirito and been on your honeymoon to fuck you but I'm not very patient. It would have been hilarious in context, with poor Kirito happy as can be not knowing that his dear wife was getting her real pussy stuffed with my cock and getting creampie'd hhmhm." I continued tweaking her nipples and raising an eyebrow as her body unconsciously reacted to my actions with Asuna letting out a small moan.

"Interesting, this might not be as boring as I first thought." Lowering my hand down her smooth stomach I reached down her panties and started rubbing her soft pussy lips getting another moan from her.

"Aah~"

Feeling myself harden even more I chuckled and leaned down taking her mouth in mine and sticking my tongue down her throat stealing her first kiss. A moment later I pulled away with a string of saliva connecting our lips as I licked them clean and stuck a finger inside finding her somewhat wet pussy.

"Hmhm my my Asuna, you have such an honest body." I smirked feeling my finger quickly becoming wet as Asuna even unconsciously started letting out small moans with her nipples hardening with every thrust.

"Let's put that mouth of yours to good use Asuna~" I whispered willing my clothes to disappear leaving me naked with my cock already rock hard.

Pulling my now wet finger out of her wet opening, I slid Asuna's body closer to the edge of the bed before turning her head to the side and putting my dick over her lips.

"Get ready Asuna, this will be your life from now on. Worshipping my cock. Now be a good little doll and open wide~" Forcing her mouth open, I thrust inside without remorse managing to sheathe half of my length down her throat.

Normally this is the part where she would start choking but with Sexual Calibration, such unpleasantness was removed and I let out a groan at the tightness that greeted me.

"That's it. That's a good little doll." Pulling back until only the tip remained inside, I thrust back in with my balls slapping her chin fully sheathing myself inside her.

Grabbing the sides of her head I gripped it tightly before setting a rhythm watching as my huge cock disappeared inside her tiny mouth.

"Haah, you have a very fuckable mouth Asuna. You must have inherited it from your bitch of a mother." I muttered closing my eyes in pleasure as I sped up my thrusts smirking a moment later when I felt her body start to produce a lot of saliva unconsciously.

Thrust for a couple of more moments I suddenly felt my approach coming and starting thrusting even faster before releasing my first load for the night. "There we go." I watched as her throat seemed to bulge not able to swallow it all before some of my cum came out of her nose.

Deciding to go easy on her I pulled out of her mouth and sprayed the rest my load all over her face and tits.

"'cough' 'cough'." I watched in amusement as Asuna started coughing but paid her no mind.

"Now time for the main event." Grabbing her panties, I quickly pulled them away and threw them to the side before getting on the bed.

Grabbing her legs, I pulled them up to her shoulders and got into position lining up the tip of my cock with her drenched pussy lips. "Hahaha, you really do have an honest body."

Looking down at her face I felt myself become even harder at her somewhat flushed expression and the way her chest moved up and down with her rapid breathing.

"Fuck you Kirito, you cuck!" With a hard thrust, her virginity was mine.

"Aaah~"

Feeling the wet sensation of her virginity disappearing, I looked down seeing the big bulge in her stomach of where my dick had claimed this girl and was now nestled in her womb.

Remaining still for a moment, I enjoyed the rush of euphoria that hit at knowing that Asuna was now mine.

"Well, let's get this over with. I have about a dozen other girls to go before this night is over with." I let out a happy sigh before I started thrusting into the comatose girl enjoying the small moans she released occasionally.

"Mmna~. Aah~"

While it was amusing and slightly arousing watching all the faces Asuna made while she was unconscious, I realized it was not as exciting as I first expected. Without the excitement of the risk that she could wake up at any moment, I quickly lost interest in her and sped up my thrusts before hitting myself and giving her a nice creampie.

"Aaaaah~"

“T-There, now for your other virginity.” Pulling out and watching my cum pour out of her pussy I smirked in satisfaction before grabbing Asuna and turning her around with her back facing me.

Without wasting time, I pulled her cheeks apart revealing her cute rose bud and prodded it gently with the tip of my dick watching it twitch cutely.

“And with this, your body now belongs to me.” Grabbing her hips, I thrust in letting out a grunt at her impossibly tight asshole.

“D-Damn, you have the tightest ass out of everyone I’ve fucked so far by a mile. Hmhmhm it will be fun training it in the future~”

Without further ado, I started rocking my hips back and forth enjoying the cute moans Asuna released.

Before I knew it an hour had passed and now, I stood once more in front of her bed watching proudly as my cum leaked out of both her holes staining the sheets.

“Haah, while I would love to vent all my frustrations on you for all the times I beat it to pics of you on the internet, there are others who also need my attention.” In a few moments I got rid of any evidence and clothed her again with the use of magic making it seem as if nothing had happened.

“But don’t worry, I’ll be joining SAO very soon so you can also experience the pleasures of sex for yourself even if it’s inside a video game.”

With those parting words I left her room and went to my next target.

=====

With Lisbeth

“plaf, plaf!”

“Damn, Lisbeth. Who knew that you had bigger knockers than Asuna. That sure gave me a surprise~” I muttered to myself as I harshly pounded Rika’s tiny pussy doggy style before releasing another load inside her.

Letting her drop to the bed bonelessly, I slightly panted as I watched cum leak out of both her holes before focusing on the rest of her body seeing Rika practically covered in white.

“Whew, you have such an amazing pussy, Rika. You should be proud, when it comes to breast size and pussy tightness, you have Asuna beat~” I said before going for thirds.

=====

With Silica

“Here you go Keiko, you always wanted everyone to treat you like a grown up right?” I asked bouncing the tiny form of Ayano Keiko up and down on my lap and watching my dick disappear into her recently deflowered pussy.

“Well, congratulations. From now on I will use you as my personal onahole!” Sheathing my whole dick in her tiny pussy and cumming, I silently thanked Sexual Calibration once again who without it, I more than likely would have killed Keiko by now with how rough I had been with her.

I couldn’t help it, she was practically a doll that I could use however I wanted and tired of having to do more work than I usually did with Asuna and Rika, I released my frustrations on Keiko.

“Haah, I can’t wait until you get cat ears. Huhuhu, I wonder if I could train you to treat my cum as milk?”

Feeling my dick get harder at the thought, I grabbed Keiko’s tiny hips and started thrusting again as I played with her small nipples.

=====

With Sachi

“Meh, while not pretty like Asuna or Rika or cute like Keiko, you have your own appeal as well Sachi.” I muttered as I fucked the black-haired girl while in a full nelson before releasing inside.

=====

With Lux

“Now that’s more like it~” I muttered in happiness as I fucked Kashiwazaka Hiyori into the mattress.

Hiyori was actually the most stacked out of the girls so far, having a nice set of big and perky breasts, a perky ass, a beautiful face and long blonde hair.

“Don’t worry Lux, with me around those amateurs at Laughing Coffin won’t even have the opportunity to talk to you. I’m going to brutally kill them after I’m done tonight to make sure that they don’t lay a hand on you. Fucking idiots, they had such a hot piece of ass and instead of tricking her into laying with one of them, they had her be a fucking scout. Pathetic. Just for that I’m going to make sure their suffer for a few thousand years in hell for their folly.”

Finishing my rant, I hilted myself as far as I could go and let go.

“Damn, I think I’m going to become addicted to this sexy body. Huhuhu don’t worry Lux, I’m more than capable of playing hero for you if you want~”

=====

With Yuna

“D-Do I have an idol in my harem?” I asked myself as I pounded the figure of Shigemura Yuuna from behind while laying side to side with one of my hands squeezing and playing with her perky breasts.

“I don’t think I do. Well, congrats Yuuna. Seems that by default you have just become my first Idol. Be sure to write a lot of songs about me and my dick all right? And how I heroically rescued you from a tragic death.”

(End of Lemons)

Later That Night

Leaving the room of Philia—or rather, Takemiya Kotone—I quietly closed the door behind me and let out a big sigh.

“Seems only Suguha, Shino, and those who never played SAO are left. The rest... I can only grab inside the game, like Yui and Strea,” I muttered, walking down the corridor with a skip in my step.

“Though as much fun as fucking a sleeping girl was, I think I’ve had enough of that for a while. I’d rather just take them by force personally.”

“Welp, at least I can check off ‘fucking an unconscious girl’ from my list. Hopefully Cortana managed to snag a copy of SAO and a NerveGear for us.”

“Next stop—we’re crashing SAO, baby~! Huhuhu, I wonder how much me and Cortana can cheese the system to level up quickly... because there’s no way in fucking hell I’m staying in there for two years.”
